Soviet Gets Fallout In Bomb Blast

U.S. Experts Say Winds Are Causing Nuclear 'Backfire'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union is getting a backfire of radioactive fallout today from its mammoth nuclear explosion, U.S. Weather Bureau scientists reported.

They said the fallout was carried on winds blowing south to southeast over the U.S.S.R.

The massive blast, triggered Monday in the atmosphere over the Novaya Zemlya region in the arctic, may have been the 50-megaton explosion that Soviet Premier Khrushchev had announced. But the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said it doubts the detonation was that big.

The AEC said the blast's yield "was very high, possibly as high as 50 megatons." But it added that preliminary analysis "indicates it was more probably on the border of 30 megatons."

There has been no word from the Soviet Union on the explosion.

But either size, it was biggest man-made explosion in history. A 30-megaton bomb releases energy equivalent to 30 million tons of TNT. It would carry more punch than all the previously announced 21 tests in the current Soviet series. The largest previous Soviet test was estimated at about 10 megatons. The biggest U.S. nuclear test has been reported at 15 to 20 megatons.

Robert List, chief of the Weather Bureau's atmospheric radioactivity project, said the Soviet Union "would get more of the immediate fallout" from the explosion than other areas.

Since it was likely the bomb was fired high in the atmosphere, List said only a small fraction of the fallout would sift down immediately, that the greater portion of it would be sucked into the stratosphere and would come down perhaps next spring.

Two U.S. scientists said, however, that in the long run the United States will get most of the fallout.

In Rochester, N.Y., physicist Ralph Lapp said "because of the latitude at which they test, we get most of the fallout from the Russian bombs."

Lapp, who worked on the project that produced the first atomic bomb, was asked if fallout increased directly with the size of the bomb. He replied: "I can only answer that with a qualified yes. It depends on the construction of the bomb."

In New York, Nobel prize-winning chemist Dr. Harold C. Urey said the fallout from the Soviet

Protests, Rioting Spread Against Soviet Bomb Test

LONDON (AP) — Protests and demonstrations spread throughout the non-Communist world today against Soviet detonation of a giant hydrogen bomb.

Government leaders, scientists and newspapers, especially in Western Europe and Japan, expressed shock and horror at the 30-to-50 megaton blast set off in the arctic Monday. India's Prime Minister Nehru said he was "deeply pained and shocked."

The Russian people themselves were unaware of the blast, not reported either by the Soviet government or press.

In Italy, tens of thousands of high school and university students marched out of classes and paraded through streets in a dozen cities in protest against the Soviet blast. In Manila, more than 7,500 Filipino college students were reported to have signed a petition urging the Soviet Union to halt further tests.

British pacifist and philosopher Earl Bertrand Russell, 89, led a ban-the-bomb delegation to the Soviet Embassy in London to deliver a protest letter and said afterward: "We had a nice interview, but in the end it was too much for the (Soviet) charge d'affaires."

Russell said the Russians told him there would be no fallout from the blast. But British Defense Minister Harold Watkinson said the British government is taking steps to make substitutes for fresh milk which might be contaminated from the Soviet blast.

He said preliminary evidence from the huge Soviet blast and its accompanying smaller one "suggests a yield of the order of 30 megatons."

In Australia, however, officials of the Commonwealth Scientific Industrial Research Organization said its measurements indicated the Russian explosion was in the 50 megaton region. They said shock waves from the explosion—8,800 miles away—were still being registered today.

West Europe's newspapers were almost unanimous in their condemnation of the explosion as an act of terrorism without any scientific justification.

Japanese were alarmed by a warning from experts there that highly radioactive rain and dust from the blast would reach their shores around Friday.

The Tokyo government called a conference of scientists to decide whether the expected levels of radiation would be harmful to humans. The experts sought ways of coping with water and vegetable contamination.

The Norwegian parliament was debating a proposed resolution protesting Soviet atmospheric tests when word of the mammoth blast was received. A Socialist deputy termed the Soviet explosion an "abominable" act and recommended the resolution be amended to make it stronger. But the original resolution was adopted when other legislators contended that any delay might be considered weakness.

Newspapers in Scandinavia grimly noted that the atmosphere had received the largest single dose of radioactivity to date.

Nehru declared that "such tests not only contaminate the atmosphere but pollute the hearts and minds of people everywhere."

"How can peace be established if the big powers continue their armaments race?" he asked.

Morton St. Woman Hit By Gunfire

Ex-Mate Wounds Self As Authorities Close In On Woods

Ralph Newtz, 922 Morton St. shot himself about 1:40 p. m., according to witnesses at the scene, as police closed in during a hunt for him.

She ran from her home, neighbors said, to the home of William Wolfe, 923 Bank St., and collapsed shortly after 1 p. m.

An ambulance was summoned to take her to the hospital and police were notified.

Officers sped to the scene and, unable to locate Newtz immediately, began a search of the wooded area nearby, witnesses said.

Shortly after 1:40, Newtz shot himself, but it was not learned immediately how serious the wound was.

Newtz was found lying a pool of blood in one room of his home, wounded in the head.

3 Yanks Defy Latest Berlin Travel Curb

Communist Police 'Back Down' On New Restriction

BERLIN (AP) — East Berlin border guards backed down Monday night when three Americans defied a new Communist restriction on travel through the Berlin wall.

After a dispute Sunday between the border guards and the deputy chief of the U.S. occupation mission in Berlin, East Germany's Red regime announced all Allied personnel in civilian clothes would have to show identification papers to East German police when passing between the Soviet and Allied sectors of Berlin.

Monday night three Americans in civilian dress, identified only as members of the U.S. occupation mission, drove up to the only crossing point still open to Allied personnel.

The driver of the car said that when an East German policeman stopped him, "I told him I was not going to show him my papers. There was a brief argument and then I was allowed to pass."

The trio returned three hours later and again refused to show their papers. After another argument, they were allowed to pass into West Berlin.

The Western Allies, contending that all of Berlin is still technically under Western-Soviet occupation, have refused to accept East German controls. Western military personnel are ordered not to show identification papers to the East German police.

There was no immediate official U.S. comment on the new East German restriction.

The East Germans stopped a car carrying E. Allan Lightner Jr., deputy chief of the U.S. mission, when Lightner refused to show his papers Sunday night. He and his wife were allowed to pass only after an armed escort of eight American soldiers surrounded his car and escorted him past the border guards.

School Bus Mishap Kills 4, Injures 18

KAPUSKASING, Ont. (AP)—A U.S. Air Force School bus slammed into the back of a gravel truck near here Monday, killing the driver and three children and injuring 18 others.

Airman James Harris, 21, of Lakeland, Fla., the bus driver, was killed when his vehicle plowed into the truck, one of several hauling gravel for construction near this northern Ontario town.

The son and daughter of the commanding officer of the U.S. radar base at nearby Lowther, Maj. Arthur Fox of Chicago, were killed. Melvyn Fox, 11, and his sister Karen, 12, were sitting in the front passenger seat. Their brother Gregory was among the injured.

John Morgan, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morgan, who come from Wisconsin, died in a hospital here during the night.

Five of the injured children were flown to the hospital at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Akron, Ohio. They are Lagry Brown, 10; Debbie Stuland, 8; Jean and Joe Swain, both 7; and Michael Newcomb, 11.

Adenauer To Reveal His Plans On Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy received a message from Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany today outlining the German position on the Berlin problem.

Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe delivered it in a one-hour conference at the White House. He said afterward the letter was an answer to the message Kennedy sent to the chancellor earlier this month.

Grewe declined to reveal the contents of the message brought back over the weekend after a 10-day trip to Bonn and a visit to West Berlin.

He said he would spell out the German position at a meeting of the Western ambassadorial steering group later at the State Department.

Castro Reports Plot To Kill Him Foiled

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro reported today that his police had thwarted a new plot to assassinate him.

In a speech to a meeting of the Young Rebels' Association, the Cuban prime minister said a counter-revolutionary group had mounted bazookas in an apartment a block and a half from the presidential palace but that the police discovered them before an attempt was made on his life.

It was the second plot against Castro's life reported this month. Authorities had announced they had uncovered a plan to kill the prime minister in front of the Havana Sports Stadium.

U.S., Soviet Near Accord On U.N. Post

Stevenson, Zorin Confer 8th Time On Secretary Job

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —U.S. and Soviet delegates scheduled another meeting today in an attempt to clear the final hurdle blocking agreement on an interim secretary-general for the United Nations.

Diplomats hoped the meeting between Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin, their eighth since Dag Hammarskjold perished in an African plane crash five weeks ago, might finally resolve the stalemate preventing the U.N. Assembly from naming a new head for the secretariat.

Zorin told reporters the only issue remaining was how many principal advisers the U.N. chief should choose from among his undersecretaries. Stevenson said it was not a question of numbers but of whether the advisers would be "geographical representatives or whether it's a political division."

A group of black African nations readied a demand for a sweeping diplomatic and economic boycott of South Africa as debate began on the republic's white supremacist policies.

Ghana had originally included a demand in the resolution that South Africa be expelled from the United Nations but informants said a number of African countries had balked at such a drastic step.

In the assembly's main political committee Soviet opposition killed a move by Norway for an immediate vote on a demand that the Soviet Union cancel its 50-megaton hydrogen bomb test.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has appointed Michael Button of Toronto as Jefferson County Court judge for a term ending Dec. 31 to replace Judge Charles B. McCann, who resigned.

The governor named Robert L. Mullins of Akron as superintendent of insurance at $14,000 a year. Mullins has been serving as acting superintendent since former Supt. Edward A. Stowell became executive assistant to DiSalle.

U.S. Fails To Blast Discoverer Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) —Discoverer XXXIII has failed to achieve orbit, setting back further the program which was designed to perfect a way to recover packages from space.

During the three years the program has encompassed, only eight capsules have been recovered.

Schuck Dies In Chair After Suicide Try

Beaver Murderer Electrocuted After Minor Wrist Cuts

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — Tight-lipped and outwardly calm, Arthur G. Schuck, a 44-year-old one-time electrician from Beaver, Pa., County, died in the electric chair Monday night for the 1958 ambush slaying of another man.

Schuck's execution at the Rockview Correctional Institution marked the first time Pennsylvania had imposed the death penalty since Oct. 26, 1959.

Schuck was strapped into the chair at 10:01 p.m. He was pronounced dead at 10:04 p.m.

He kept his head bowed as he walked with the Rev. Kenneth Anderson, prison chaplain.

Only when he was being strapped in the chair did he look up to gaze momentarily into the eyes of the 12 witnesses who were gathered outside the death cham-

Atmospheric Tests By U.S. Held Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., said today the Soviet Union's explosion of a massive nuclear device may forece U.S. resumption of atmospheric testing.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, discounted the claim of Soviet Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky that the Soviets have solved the problem of destroying rockets in flight.

But the Montana senator said no one can be sure that the Soviets have not made some progress in developing an antimissile missile in their series of high-altitude shots. He said it is his understanding that atmospheric tests are necessary to perfect such a missile.

Anderson, a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said he regards it as likely that the United States will fire off an above-ground explosion relatively soon.

Mansfield said the Russians are endangering their own people, as well as other in the Northern Hemisphere, with the fallout from their series of tests.

"They are certainly guilty of indirect aggression against the countries that lie in the path of that fallout," he said.

Negotiations Recessed In Mine Strike

New Talks Subject To Call By Either Side Or Mediator

Negotiations have been recessed in the strike of 28 clay miners at the Pleasant Valley mine off Route 45 near Wellsville.

"No progress" was reported by both the H. K. Porter Co. and United Brick & Clayworkers Union after a three-hour session Monday in the Travelers Hotel.

Talks have been recessed subject to call by either side or G. W. Woomer, federal conciliator from the Pittsburgh office of the Federal Mediation Board.

The miners are striking over the company's rejection of a demand for a 70-cent hourly blanket increase for all job classifications.

The demand was shaved for the negotiations Monday, but apparently was rejected by the Porter Co.

Porter Co. officials said earlier they cannot meet the demand and offered an 8-cent hourly increase plus a 1½-cent cost-of-living hike.

The strike, eight days old today, has closed the Champion brick producing plant of the Porter Co. at Silver Switch, and the wire cut production section of the Buckeye Works at Wellsville.

Woomer, who arranged yesterday's talks, is expected to call both sides together for another session in four or five days.

Representing the union yesterday were James Gatehouse from the union office in Clearfield, Pa., and Edward (Ted) Bauer of Wellsville, clayworkers international representative. Lloyd C. Jenkins, industrial relations director of Porter Co., in Pittsburgh, was present, along with Woomer.

No negotiations are scheduled between the Porter Co. and Local 428, a new union serving the clerks and laboratory and draftsmen employes. However, these workers are not on strike.

Soviet Bomb Test Hit By Socialist Unit

ROME (AP) — The seventh world congress of Socialists today unanimously adopted a resolution protesting as a "monstrous crime" the Soviet Union's explosion of a superbomb.

The congress condemned the resumption of nuclear tests after Soviet promises never to be the first to resume tests, and deplored its refusal to accept American and British offers to conclude immediately a treaty banning tests in the atmosphere.

The action was taken after British Labor Party leader Hugh Gaitskell told the congress "we feel deep disgust and cold anger over (Soviet Premier) Khrushchev's decision to explode the mighty 50-megaton bomb."

The resolution said:

"The Socialist International, in the name of 70 million voters, protests emphatically against the recent explosion in the Soviet Union of a multimegaton nuclear weapon. A 50-megaton explosion represents a monstrous crime against humanity. This explosion will greatly add to the level of radiation and may endanger the health of those living now and of those still unborn. This is in sharp contrast with the solemn declaration of peaceful co-existence."

Luthuli Wins For 1960

Hammarskjold Awarded 1961 Nobel Peace Prize

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Nobel Peace Prize for 1961 was awarded Monday to Dag Hammarskjold, who perished on a peace mission in the Congo.

The delayed peace prize for 1960 went to Albert John Luthuli, a Zulu Christian leader in South Africa, for his efforts to alleviate racial discrimination. Luthuli is the first African to receive the prize, worth 250,232 kroner—$48,640. The Nobel Peace Prize Committee of the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) last year postponed its award.

Hammarskjold became the first man to receive the prize posthumously. The U.N. secretary-general was killed Sept. 18 when his plane crashed en route to Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. He was seeking to end the fighting between Katangan and U.N. forces by negotiating with President Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province.

Hammarskjold, Swedish aristocrat who headed the executive branch of the United Nations from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last year after organizing a U.N. force that halted the chaos in the Congo in mid-summer of 1960. However, the closing date for the list of candidates is Feb. 1 of the year of the award.

In view of the early closing date for nominations, Hammarskjold must have already been

Beaver Authorities Raid Freedom Lodge

At the lodge, the pair confiscated five punch boards, a horoscope slot machine and a fish bowl with "Lucky 7" chances. At the club, they confiscated a slot machine called "The Big Roundup," which is operated by an electric button instead of a lever.

Steward said the devices will be demolished and an investigation will follow to determine if any arrests can be made.

New York Convicts End Hunger Strike

STORMVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The 1,966 inmates of the maximum-security Green Haven State Prison were eating regularly today, and perhaps even a little more than usual. They have a three-day hunger strike to make up for.

The convicts agreed to end their strike Monday night when the prison warden and the state commissioner of correction promised them their grievances would be looked into.

The grievances, said Warden Edward Fay, involved dissatisfaction with actions of the State Parole Board and with medical treatment at the prison.

ber. He said nothing.

However, the wounds were bandaged and he was sent on his way from Pittsburgh to Bellefonte the next morning for his scheduled date with the executioner.

Schuck, a resident of Baden, was convicted of first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of Vincent Quigley at Economy, Beaver County, on the night of April 27, 1958, also killed in the shooting was Quigley's friend Willian Engle.

Seal-Coating Next On 4th

Working today on North Side streets, the Tri-State Asphalt Co. will begin seal - coating W. 4th St. Wednesday afternoon, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen was told today.

Owen said W. 4th St. will be posted to ban parking tomorrow, but said brief parking, 10-15 minutes, will be permitted tomorrow morning. All-day parking will be banned, he emphasized.

The company expects to seal-coat Anderson Blvd., McKinnon Ave., Jennings Ave., North St., Riverview St., Perry St., Montgomery Ave. and Princeton Ave. and possibly Smithfield St. and Park Blvd. today.

If the company is unable to seal-coat Smithfield St. and Park Blvd., the job will be done tomorrow before the equipment is moved to W. 4th St., the director said.

Officials of the Martins Ferry firm also are due to inspect the job, particularly Pennsylvania Ave. work, pointing out the seal-coating is being pulled loose.

The company blamed the trouble on heavy traffic and a rain which fell just as the work was being completed. It promised to spot-patch the areas where the seal-coat had pulled loose, the director said.

Quick Count Seen On Tax, Mayor Race

The County Election Board said today it expects to have a quick count of results on the East Liverpool mayoral race Nov. 7 and the city's income tax ordinance.

Precinct workers in the city's 34 polling places will make a "flash count" of the results in the race between Mayor Bert H. Goodballet and his Republican opponent, O. Earl Greenawalt, along with the returns on the income tax initiative ordinance, and phone the report to the board's office on W. 6th St., Frank R. O'Hanlon, said.

The presiding judges and clerks then will follow the general instructions issued to workers in the county's remaining 131 precincts, O'Hanlon said.

The workers then will count the ballots on the four proposed state amendments and two countywide tax levies and send the returns to the board's office by messenger.

The final count, also to be sent by messenger, will be on the city office-type ballot from mayor through councilman and the Board of Education ballot, O'Hanlon said.

He emphasized the first report is to be by phone and the other two are to be brought to the board's office by messenger.

Workers in the county's remaining 131 precincts have been instructed to make two counts and phone their results to the collector in their district.

Permit Changes Eyed For District Taverns

Transfer applications are being processed by the Ohio Department of Liquor Control for licenses held by taverns at Toronto and Washingtonville.

The permits for sale of beer and wine for carryout and on-premise consumption at Margaret's Cafe Toronto, have been requested for transfer from the late Margaret Swaykus to Anna Tylasky, executrix of the Swaykus estate.

Permits for beer and wine carryout and on-premise consumption and sale of liquor by the drink at the Town Tavern of S. Market St., Washingtonville, have been requested transferred from Hugh McIntosh to Robert Waggle.

Hearing Is Continued Pending Deposition

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set the new hearing for Nov. 9 at 9 a. m. and continued Sturgill's $500 bond.

Sturgill was arrested Oct. 14 on Gardendale Ave. by police, who claimed he drove away a few minutes after being warned not to drive the car.

Governor Reiterates 'Hands Off' Decision

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle reiterated Monday he will keep hands off the Democratic gubernatorial primary, thrown wide open by his decision not to seek another term.

The governor commented on published speculation that Highway Safety Director J. Grant Keys was his favorite candidate. DiSalle asserted he was not referring to Keys when the governor said last week he had a favorite candidate who could not be elected.

Wellsville Democrats Open Election Office

Wellsville Democrats have established headquarters at 554 Main St. for the coming election campaign, D. J. Cuti, city chairman, announced.

The city committee will meet there during the campaign.

A meeting of poll workers, precinct committeemen and candidates will be held sometime next week with the date to be announced. A discussion will be held on any new issues on the ballot and a rally prior to the election will be planned.

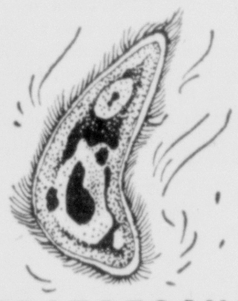
What is a



PROTOZOAN?

The study of the protozoan is a part of our scientists' attempt to solve the mysteries of living matter. Their findings could affect the lives of all of us in the years ahead.

For America's well-being we need all the scientists we can develop. Yet many potential scientists may never go on to higher education because there may not be room for them in college. Many colleges are overcrowded and in 10 years applications will double. We will need more and better college laboratories and thousands more of the highest quality professors.

Gen. Taylor Maps Report To President

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor has decided on the broad outlines of the proposals he will make to President Kennedy for swift action against the Communist threat to South Viet Nam's independence, a U.S. spokesman said today.

Taylor, Kennedy's special military adviser, met with South Viet Nam President Ngo Dinh Diem for two and a half hours in what was possibly their final business session.

The spokesman said the head of Kennedy's save Viet Nam mission and Diem "reviewed in very general terms the proposals to be made to President Kennedy" when Taylor returns to Washington, probably late this week.

Earlier today the Socialist Union group in the National Assembly appealed for American troops to be sent to South Viet Nam. Because the group generally follows the line set by Diem, its statement was considered possibly significant.

The statement could indicate a change in Diem's position since last spring, when he reportedly told Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson he did not want U.S. troops here. Since Johnson's visit the Communist Viet Cong have been mounting heavier and more widespread attacks and the American-trained South Vietnamese army has found it increasingly hard to cope with them.

Occupants Uninjured In Irondale Collision

Both drivers escaped injury in a traffic crash near Irondale Monday afternoon at 5:30, the Wintersville State Highway Patrol reported.

Involved were cars operated by William H. Hoobler, 31, who was heading south and turning left, and Phyllis Beadnell, 25, who was west - bound on County Rd. 55, the patrol said.

Both drivers are from Hammondsville, the patrol said. There was moderate damage to their cars.

Man Given Probation In Morals Complaint

Ronald Jackman, 27, of East Liverpool R. D. 1 was placed on probation Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a charge of exposing himself to two juveniles.

Jackman was ordered not to drink intoxicating beverages, obtain and keep steady employment, be of good behavior, obey all laws and report to court every month by letter.

He was cited in April and the case was continued several times.

bomb "will mostly come to the United States."

However, Urey added in a television interview that the fallout will be "unpleasant but not critical—not at all." He did not elaborate.

Some U.S. officials have said a 50-megaton explosion would cause a large increase of fallout in this country but would not raise radioactivity to the danger point.

James Terrill, assistant chief of the radiological health division of the Public Health Service, said: "We do expect that the levels will be substantially higher than they have been in some portions of the U.S., and that we must be ready to understand the actual exposure of people that occurs so that corrective measures, if necessary, can be taken."

It was an awesome day generally in the records of bombs and missiles:

1. The Soviet Union also fired an underwater nuclear blast of low yield about two hours after the big explosion in the atmosphere. Washington officials said it obviously was a trial of an anti-submarine warfare weapon.

2. The U.S. Navy shot an advanced A2 Polaris from a submarine for the first time. The missile zoomed 1,000 miles down range from 90 feet beneath the Atlantic's surface and about 50 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral, Fla.

3. The Soviet Union claimed it had developed a defense against rockets—but did not specify what type of rockets.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a Texas firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If your symptoms indicate that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. This is all the more remarkable in light of the fact that the great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped. But how can any man or woman be sure what is actually causing their hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Actually, there are 18 scalp disorders that can cause hair loss. No matter which one is the cause of your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. If you still have hair (or at least some fuzz) on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to act.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them information to help them analyze your problem. This information should include how long your hair has been thinning, and whether or not you now have or ever have had any of the following conditions: Do you have dandruff? is it dry or oily? whether your scalp erupts in pimples or other irritations, does your forehead become oily or greasy? does your scalp itch and how often? and any other information you feel might be helpful. All letters will be answered promptly. Send the above information, and your name and address to Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Box 66001, Houston 6, Texas. Adv.

Yes, there's one bright spot in your family budget! . . . While the cost of living has more than doubled since 1936†, the average price per kilowatt hour of electricity in Ohio has gone *down. (In fact, government figures show you pay less than people in 32 other states!)

Martha might say, "Then how come we're paying so much more for electricity than we used to?" That's because you are using 5½ times as much electricity. But the average unit price has actually gone down.

How has electricity remained such a bargain? A big part of the answer is found in Ohio's business climate. Thanks to this historically favorable business climate, the electric companies have been able to raise the millions needed to make improvements. Through such improvements (and through your increased use of electricity) it has been possible to keep the price of electricity down. Thanks to Ohio's business climate, the electric companies have been able to keep electricity the biggest bargain in your budget!

Can A Lame Duck Win?

Although Gov. DiSalle has revealed he will not seek re-election next year, he has not removed all the mystery from the political aspects of his decision.

The mystery is this: Why does he reason that his withdrawal from the race for governor will increase his influence in selling the program he has espoused for Ohio?

Seeking the answer to that question leads to the element of surprise in the governor's announcement.

None of his backers and relatively few of his opponents have questioned the sincerity of his belief in his program. There is no denying that he has worked as hard as any of his predecessors—and harder than many—at formulating his program and trying to put it across to his fellow officeholders and the voters of Ohio.

HE HAS SCORED some successes and some setbacks. It is the prime characteristic of political war that the setbacks often seem to outweigh the successes.

This certainly has been often true of Gov. DiSalle. One of his talents seems to be the ability to embroil himself in controversy. His backers say it is the result of his courage in speaking the truth. His opponents say it is the result of the wrongness of his positions.

Be that as it may, the fact remains that many, perhaps most, political observers felt the sincerity of Gov. DiSalle's belief in what he sees as right for Ohio would lead him inevitably to seek re-election—to stake his personal political future on his ability to persuade Ohioans that he is right.

Instead, he has taken just the opposite position. He says he believes he can persuade more people if he is not the candidate.

There may be logic in the strategy. But politics seldom operates by logic, and the accepted theory is that a "lame duck" official loses rather than gains power to influence voters.

THIS IN ITSELF can become an issue in next year's campaign. Is the governor right in assuming that the voters will pay more attention to him if he is on the way out than they would if he were trying to stay in?

As is the way in politics, only time will provide the answer.

Perhaps the result of next year's campaign will be to show that Mike DiSalle has left a mark on the governor's office which no successor of either party will be able to remove.

And perhaps that is what Mike DiSalle was hoping for when he made his decision not to run again.

One Pant Leg At A Time

The Kennedy administration is said to be starting a counterattack against a mood of national frustration over the cold war.

One of the targets of the counterattack apparently is going to be the attitude of some elements of the press that make it appear Nikita Khrushchev gets into his pants two legs at a time. This would be a good time for all newspapers to analyze their attitude on this proposition in sartorial physics.

News from the Soviet Union and news about the Soviet Union and the Communist Conspiracy is subject to the distortion that affects all news from abroad. In the absence of first-hand information about things that do not constitute news, readers can get the impression that Russians are 10 feet high.

Meanwhile, they are subject to the impression that they and their own government personalities have shrunk to pygmy proportions, because domestic news stresses so many less-than-life-size details. Americans read and hear about things that have turned sour in their own affairs, but almost never read and hear about things that turn sour in the affairs of other nations, unless they undergo a revolution.

THE RESULTING distortion is not intentional. To a large degree it cannot be helped, though newspapers would do well to be more aware of it. They do have the option of wondering if every speech Khrushchev makes deserves headlines. They do have the obligation to make the same considered judgment about news of developments in Moscow that they make about news of developments in Washington and the capitals of America's allies.

If this is something the Kennedy administration hopes to correct, with no thought of doctoring public information to suit its own taste, it will find no lack of cooperation.

Nikita Khrushchev and all the other ballyhooed supermen of the Communist Conspiracy do get into their pants one leg at a time like men everywhere else—provided they own a pair of pants.

By seeing these people only when they are strutting center stage under the spotlight and by hearing them only when they are reciting their best lines, we build up the illusion that fools us at the movies.

WE BELIEVE the shadow and reject the reality. We are fascinated by the make-believe. And we berate ourselves and our kind for not being as fearsome as the shadows we see against the Moscow backdrop.

Luckily it works two ways. The Khrushchevs and their kind have a distorted view of us, too—but they are more sophisticated about it. They pooh-pooh the United States, capitalism, the friends of capitalism and everything about the West, because they know every last mother's son living under the Communist thumb would give his eye teeth to live first-class for a change.

If the ideological war is going to run on indefinitely—and it has been running on in one form or another throughout the Christian era—all parties concerned will need to be concerned about this problem of distortion.

In the United States, the place to start might well be those pant legs of Nikita Khrushchev. He gets into them one at a time. He gets out of them the same way.

Peripheral Gadget Graveyard

With due respect to our scientists, an ingenious and wildly imaginative collection of try-any-thing-once prioneers, outer space is being peppered with every gadget spawned in their fertile imaginations.

We do not refer specifically to the 350 million copper needles they lobbed into orbit late last week, on the theory that these objects whizzing through space 2,000 feet high in a belt from 5 to 25 miles wide would be useful in radio transmission.

We refer generally to the stuff they are putting into orbit because governments have cornered vast amounts of wealth to expand in pursuit of everything with a scientific label attached to it. Woe to anyone who voices a doubt.

The supposition is that the scientific game is worth all the candles that it costs. Even were it not for the crushing compulsion of scientific rivalry between nations, there would still be a thundering credo that he who questions science is a spoilsport and probably a subversive.

Rumors say that even in the Soviet Union, where dissenters are silenced permanently if they dissent too much, there are Russians who wonder about a government that stays abreast of all possibilities of lobbing hardware into outer space but lags behind possibilities of filling the bellies of its constituents.

Perhaps 350 million needles in orbit around the tattered old earth will help it mend its ways. It may take 350 billion needles, and if it does we'll put 'em up there, along with satellites, rocket casings, radioactive particles, the corpses of animals that never had a chance to discuss their going and, ultimately, the corpses of humans who did talk it over and decided to take a chance, anyway.

Out of so much stuff some good must come, because Science has a reason for everything it does, it says, even if it's only to play out the error portion of the trial-and-error equation. This time it was needles. The next time it may be pins. A year from now it may be crocket hooks.

The Once Over

Delegate (to another delegate): Careful, and remember I warned you about this.

Other Delegate: About what?

First Delegate: Your eyes are drooping and our leader has spoken only an hour and a half.

Other Delegate: My eyes are only half drooping.

His Friend: If they are half drooping now how much droop will you have left at the end of six hours?

HUNGARIAN (to a Romanian): Stop poking me in the ribs!

Romanian: It's my duty as a comrade. You have been applauding in the wrong place. Endurance at these meetings is fundamental.

Hungarian: Thanks. I was dreaming I was at a meeting where the speaker was brief.

Other Mongolian (to Cuban): Snap out of it. You are in peril of excommunication. You are on the edge of snoring.

Cuban: Nonsense. I do not get near the edge of a snore for the first three hours. I have been well conditioned listening to Fidel. With me the edge of snoring is at least two hours away.

Czech Delegate to a Chinese: Kick me in the shins. My foot is asleep.

Czech: I thought you were used to long speeches.

Chinese: We must be brave and strong. It is our duty to the party never to falter in the face of 50-megaton speeches.

Czech: Excuse me for seeming to defect from our party line by showing slight boredom during the first 100,000 words.

Chinese: Forward with the 350-word sentence, split infinitives and the will to endure nonstop oratory in the cause of world peace, let the ear-strain fall where it may! Only imperialists weaken under an all-day speech!

More Products Arrive From Cuba

By Victor Riesel

It's a long way between Moscow and the lobster nets off the rocks of the Cuban coast. But since the shortest distance between these two points is the straight Communist line, I want to hang a story on it which should, it seems to me, shame some of our citizenry and anger the rest. That is if we still have a capacity for indignation. This starts with word I've received from Moscow that one of the most enthusiastic fraternal delegates to the Soviet's 22nd Party Congress is Cuba's Blas Roca.

Victor Riesel

He's second to none in jumping to his feet, stomping and applauding the Russian chairman during the sharpest attacks on the western democracies in general and the United States in particular.

Roca, according to well documented evidence, officially swung the Cuban Communist Party to Fidel Castro three years ago in a move which brought the bearded one out of the mountains and into the Presidential Palace in Havana.

This, Blas Roca did at a secret meeting on the island of Jamaica when he conferred in mid-August 1953 with a small band of Castro agents. Remember, this was some 4½ months before the Fidelistas came to power. Their rendezvous resulted in what is known among Latin experts as the "Jamaica Pact."

THOUGH THIS WAS a meeting between the Castro envoys and the Cuban Communist Party, Castro had long been working with the "Comintern" — the international Communist apparatus.

It is not generally known, but the Soviet subversion tactic is a two-fold operation. There is an underground "rep" (representative) who passes secret orders on from the Comintern center in Prague to the Castro-type of nationalist rebels in any land. And there is the official Communist Party which appears to be holding aloof from such seemingly independent revolutionists.

Fidel Castro long had been taking orders from the Prague underground. These were passed on by the Comintern rep to his brother Raoul, and to "Che" Guevara and Osvaldo Dorticos, now Cuba's president. In August 1958 it became apparent to all insiders that Batista's government would soon blow up like an Algerian cafe.

Word was dispatched from the underground Comintern rep to both Castro and the overt Cuban Communist Party leadership that they were to get together officially. A secret meeting was arranged in nearby Jamaica. Blas Roca headed the Communist group.

THEY MADE their pact with Castro during a long discussion in which they carved U.S. interests with the salivary delight of a gourmet at you know where on Paris' left bank. Then Castro's men went back to the hills and Blas Roca slipped back into Havana with the signal for sabotage.

Now Roca is in Moscow cheering the type of totalitarian station which is garroting Cuba despite its literal theft of a billion dollars worth of U.S. property and about as much in property seized from the Cuban people themselves.

By this time, Roca's party is more powerful than the grimly pathetic Castro. Satellite-ism in Havana can survive only by huge economic transfusions from Russia — which has little to spare—or by moving back again into the U.S. market. If Cuba can get our dollars, it can buy, cash in advance, what it needs. And it needs our kind of "sugar" as much as its own.

But you might think, then, that trade with us is impossible after the executions, the insults, the mass thievery and the use of Cuba as a base for Soviet-softening operations in Latin America.

But you're wrong. It's happening. Cuba is moving back into the U.S. market. Slowly, but enough like the proverbial tortoise to make your hair stand on end.

AT THE MOMENT Cuba is selling $5 million worth of foodstuffs in the United States. This is in addition to its $25 million worth of tobacco — which I'm told is necessary here to keep 6,000 men at work. But the $5 million is just the beginning of Cuba's new trade drive in the United States.

Cuba is readying a small fleet of tramp steamers and goletas (schooners) to begin saturating the United States with such new produce as the can of rock lobsters now resting on my desk. This sea food was "packed by the Conservas Punta De Cartas, S.A., Pinar Del Rio." This is an area in which the greatest number of anti-Communist fighters were rather cruelly destroyed.

Yet Cuba is receiving American dollars. There is no way to stop this. Why? Because there is not, and there has never been a ban on imports of any kind in any amount from this Soviet satellite! Cuba is being permitted to begin rebuilding its "business-as-usual" in the United States.

Doesn't anybody care?

Flash-In-The Pan?

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — The Kennedy administration has now talked very rough to Russia but whether this is just a flash-in-the-pan or the beginning of a new policy of toughness remains to be seen.

For months Premier Khrushchev, while demanding the Allies back up on Berlin, has waved his nuclear weapons and cut loose with a whole series of tests. He has been the tough one.

President Kennedy, by comparison, has been mild. In the past couple of months some Republican critics have complained he wasn't firm enough, even suggesting he was an appeaser. This, reportedly, got under the President's skin.

Last week Khrushchev topped things off by announcing Russia soon would explode a 50-megaton nuclear bomb which would dwarf previous blasts. Monday Russia exploded two nuclear devices — one of them described by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission as possibly as high as 50 megatons but more likely about 30 megatons.

American officials — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, for instance —professed to see no practical reason for such an explosion although one simple explanation seems to be reasonable enough: Khrushchev is doing this as a terror tactic.

Saturday night, as if replying to this tactic, Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense, made the toughest speech delivered by any Pentagon official since Kennedy took office.

The speech was first approved by Rusk and the White House. The administration took pains beforehand to let newsmen know the speech had this approval to show Gilpatric was talking for the administration.

Gilpatric not only said the United States is superior to Russia in nuclear weapons — he went into some detail to explain why—but warned the Soviets that if they start a nuclear war, even with a sneak attack, this country's nuclear resources would still be powerful enough to wipe them out.

This kind of talk would have had a much greater impact here and abroad if someone higher up the official ladder in the administration—like Kennedy, Rusk or Defense Secretary Robert McNamara—had delivered it.

But, even though it came from a lesser official like Gilpatric, the fact that the administration let it be known he had full approval got the point across.

This speech serves to fry several kinds of fish:

1. Just in case Khrushchev has any doubts about American power—and officials here don't think he does—the Gilpatric speech would set him straight.

2. Khrushchev has been making propaganda hay—in trying to impress the world with Russia's power—and the Gilpatric speech may take some of the edge off it.

3. It is also a nudge to American allies, particularly in Europe, if they suspected American weakness because Kennedy didn't try to match Khrushchev in waving nuclear weapons.

4. It may take some of the steam out of the complaint by some Republicans that Kennedy hasn't been tough enough.

The fact that Kennedy and Rusk let a lower-echelon man like Gilpatric do the talking in this case — instead of one of them — can still be interpreted as something less than an all-out willingness by the administration to be tough.

Patent System

When the United States Patent Office was set up in 1836, the steam locomotive's lonely whistle was just beginning to be heard across the land.

This year, on its 125th anniversary, satellites circle the earth and scientists test vehicles which they hope will take man to the moon.

Between the eras of rail and space, the American patent system has given order and direction to the nation's inventive talents. By adding "the fuel of interest to the fire of genius" (Lincoln), it has sparked countless industries and helped build an unparalleled standard of living.

To Tell The Truth

By David Lawrence

More 'Nigerias' Are Needed

None of the information in this article comes from any postcard written by a Nigerian student visiting the United States. Most of it comes from the pen of James B. Conant, formerly president of Harvard University and one of America's leading educators. It is taken from his new book "Slums And Suburbs," which was written after a first-hand study of schools in the suburbs of well-to-do people and in the slums of the poor in large cities of America.

David Lawrence

Dr. Conant says the building up of "a mass of unemployed and frustrated Negro youth in congested areas" in American cities has in it potentialities for trouble and, indeed, possibilities of disaster.

He describes Negro slums in big northern cities as follows:

"In some there are very bad gangs with gang warfare among the boys. There are also vicious fights outside of school between Negro girls. The condition in one such neighborhood was summed up to one of my staff by a principal of a junior high school who said even he was shocked by the answers to a questionnaire to the girls which asked what was their biggest problem. The majority replied to the effect that their biggest problem was getting from the street into their apartment without being molested in the hallway of the tenement. . . .

"I have walked through school corridors in slum areas and looking in the classrooms, have seen children asleep with their heads on their hands. Is this situation the result of poor teachers without either disciplinary control or teaching ability? No, the children asleep at their desks have been up all night with no place to sleep or else have been subject to incredibly violent family fights and horrors through the night.

"Checking into one case, a principal told one of my staff that after climbing six flights of a tenement he found the boy's home — one filthy room with a bed, a light bulb, and a sink. In the room lived the boy's mother and her four children. I might add that it is not unusual for teachers in these schools to take home with them children with no place to go at night."

DR. CONANT tries to deal realistically with the whole question of schools in the slums and the efforts recently made to move Negro children to white schools.

There isn't the slightest trace of bias or prejudice on the race question in Dr. Conant's background. He believes wholeheartedly in the Supreme Court decision of 1954 on desegregation of the public schools. But he questions some of the inferences drawn from the Supreme Court's ruling that "separate educational facilities are inherently unequal." He particularly doubts the wisdom of proposals for moving Negro children into all-white schools so as to have mixed schools. He writes:

"Taken out of context, the conclusion might be drawn that the justices declared separate educational facilities, for whatever reason provided, are morally wrong and if supported by tax funds are illegal.

"Yet on reading carefully the whole opinion, I think the key sentence is the question defined by the court: 'Does segregation of children in public schools solely on the basis of race, even though physical facilities and other "tangible" factors may be equal, deprive the children of the minority group of equal educational opportunities: We believe that it does.'

"I have italicized the word 'solely,' as I presume to think it is the essential word. The justices appear to have expressed no view as to whether the pupils in a completely Negro school are deprived of equal educational opportunity if they are not assigned solely because of their race. In short, if one group of children is separated from another group because of the neighborhood in which they live, the fact of this separation is, of and by itself, no evidence of an inequality in education. Whether in fact the facilities and instruction are equal in a 100 per cent white school, a mixed school, and a 100 per cent Negro school in a large city is to be determined by examining the schools, not by appeal to phrases such as 'de facto segregation,' with the implication that it is to be condemned by all right-thinking people who condemn 'de jure segregation.'

"In some cities political leaders have attempted to put pressure on the school authorities to have Negro children attend essentially white schools. In my judgment, the cities in which the authorities have yielded to this pressure are on the wrong track. Those which have not done so, like Chicago, are more likely to make progress in improving Negro education."

IN HIS BOOK Dr. Conant tackles the whole subject on the basis of improving education. While his description of conditions in the slum areas of the United States is discouraging, the problem will not be solved by ignoring their existence.

That's why it is surprising to find resentment expressed by the prime minister of Nigeria because an American visitor describes the facts of life in that country. The sooner the new African republics learn something about democracy and a free press — which doesn't hesitate to print all the facts no matter how unfavorable — the quicker will solutions be found for some of the vexing problems that arise as a consequence of poverty.

Margery Michelmore of the Peace Corps may turn out to be more of a heroine than a villainess because of a postcard which inadvertently publicized to the whole world the plight of the underdeveloped countries.

Actually, what is needed is more frequent and more vivid "postcards" from Africa so as to awaken people, not just in America but throughout the world, to the human needs of their unfortunate brethren.

Through The Years

Mrs. Daniel M. Cronin installed the new officers of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Received as new members of the Art Circle Club were Mrs. Harley Conley and Miss Nellie Clark.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — John Lancaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Lancaster of Newell, was chairman of the art committee for the annual Harvest ball at Duquesne University.

Twenty new members were received into the Dramatic Club of Wellsville High School, known as the "Scitamard."

TEN YEARS AGO — Mr. and Mrs. David Spore of Midway Ln. concluded a vacation in Boston.

Miss Ruby Meade of Wellsville was appointed typist-accountant in the office of county treasurer Vincent C. Judge.

A spider is not an insect. An insect is a small invertebrate animal having its body divided into three sections, with six legs, and usually two or four wings. A spider has eight legs and no wings.

Stone Age

Australia's aborigines give modern man a hint of how his own ancestors lived.

Though Europeans emerged from the Old Stone Age about 10,000 years ago, many aborigines are still in it. Their simple hunting and food-gathering economy suggests the hardships that Europeans knew thousands of years ago.

The Arunta, or Aranda, tribesmen inhabit the very center of the world's smallest continent. Anthropologist Edward Weyer calls them "as perfect an example of a Stone Age people as we have." Physically they may be closer than any other living people to Neanderthal man, a resident of Europe 50,000 years ago.

The Arunta have lithe, well-proportioned bodies, chocolate-brown complexions, and flowing beards. They wear no clothing and build no shelters. A family's entire possessions may weigh no more than 30 pounds.

The sharpest teeth of any animal are generally attributed to the shark. Sharks vary in size from the dogfishes, about three feet long, to the basking shark, 35 to 40 feet long.

Won't Face Real Problems

Congolese Leaders Fail To Awaken To Reality

(Editors' Note—The lives of many men, along with some of your tax dollars, have gone into the effort to end the chaos that has throttled the Congo since it won independence 16 months ago. What are the results? What is the outlook? Here is the first of three articles giving a penetrating look at the Congo today. The writer won a 1961 Pulitzer Prize for his dispatches on African affairs.)

By LYNN HEINZERLING

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Sixteen months of bloodshed, political chaos and near bankruptcy—not to mention millions of dollars — have failed to awaken the Congo to reality.

The republic's "government of reconciliation" under Prime Minister Cyrille Adoula has failed to reconcile.

The backyard government set up by Antoine Gizenga in Stanleyville with the help of Communist governments collapsed and Gizenga joined the Adoula government as vice premier. He contributed little and has gone back to Stanleyville. Nobody knows when or whether he will return.

The United Nations has reached a cease-fire agreement in the secessionist province of Katanga, whose rich copper deposits are the nation's greatest asset. It is desperately trying to bring President Moise Tshombe of Katanga into negotiations with Adoula.

The Congolese Parliament considers its most important order of business is to arrange to chop up the jungle land into still more provinces with diverse tribal urges. There are not enough skilled Congolese to run the central government and administer the present six provinces properly.

The new nation still does not have its own constitution, but is operating under a fundamental law worked out with the former Belgian colonial masters. Parliament is amending this law so that the six provinces laid out arbitrarily by the Belgians can be cut up to accommodate and perpetuate tribal groupings.

It is a labor based on the ancient hates of the Congolese that will further impede the Congo's entrance into the world of the 20th century.

The shadow of the first prime minister, Patrice Lumumba, still lies across the Congo. The tall, flamboyant nationalist leader was slain in Katanga more than eight months ago while being held by Tshombe's government.

Western diplomats, who have watched the whole incredible story unfold in the Congo, believe the Adoula government is the best the country can achieve in the circumstances. Some consider Adoula the most impressive man in the Congo.

Adoula must keep the Congo calm and solve the Katanga problem to survive. The central government cannot hope to operate this huge country of 900,000 square miles without a share of Katanga's rich copper profits.

United Nations officials are confident. They expect that preliminary contacts between Katangan emissaries and the central government will be followed by a meeting between Adoula and Tshombe.

Despite his statements, Tshombe himself is known to feel that the days of his private state are numbered. Not a single nation has recognized the proclaimed independence of Katanga.

The central government, under great pressure from leftists and Lumumbists, still thinks grandiosely of sending Mobutu's troops to the Katanga border and seizing the recalcitrant province. Mobutu is known to regard such an adventure more soberly.

It was Mobutu, with the backing of President Joseph Kasavubu who expelled Russians, Czechs and Poles from the country last year after they openly supplied war materials to maintain Lumumba in power.

Mobutu and members of the central government know that a defeat in Katanga or even a long stalemate could mean the end of the Adoula government. The time would then be ripe for a takeover by the extremist Lumumbists.

There are bright spots. The Communist threat is recognized and it is still less real than in the days of Lumumba's gaudy reign.

President Kasavubu, although no political genius, is still a moderate and stabilizing force with a solid backing. The Adoula government has kept in office such friends of the West as Vice Premier Jason Sendwe, Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko and Information Minister Joseph Ileo. There are other moderate, if less sophisticated, members of the Cabinet.

"1" DIAL "1" for Direct Distance Dialing

Beginning Sunday, October 29

In East Liverpool—beginning next Sunday—whenever you direct dial a long distance call, please dial the numeral "1" first, before dialing the out-of-town number.

Here's how it works: To dial a long distance call within northeastern Ohio—Cleveland, for example—first dial "1" and then dial the telephone number.

To dial a call to a place outside northeastern Ohio—Columbus, for example—first dial "1", then 614 (Area Code for Columbus) and then the telephone number.

This method of placing direct distance calls will soon be introduced through the nation. The purpose is to have a simple, uniform way of getting connected to the Direct Distance Dialing network, so that eventually anyone, anywhere, will be able to dial long distance calls the same way.

So, please remember to dial the numeral "1" first on all direct dialed long distance calls. It's a step toward the future.

Jury Hears $1,500 Suit

Testimony continued today in Hancock County Circuit Court in New Cumberland in a $1,500 civil action filed by a Chester service station operator in connection with a traffic accident two years ago.

Clyde Donald Chaney asks payment for damages to his property allegedly caused by an auto and tractor - trailer rig that collided at the bottom of the Route 30 hill May 27, 1959.

The trial opened Monday and is being heard by a panel of six women and six men serving as petit jurors for the fall term of court. Judge Ralph Pryor is presiding.

The defendant is Leo Kahle Eberhart of Fairview St., Chester.

The original suit filed by Chaney was for $3,000 against Eberhart and the Eclipse Motor Lines. The motor company settled out-of-court.

Eberhart's 1959 model auto, moving through the intersection, and a tractor - trailer rig loaded with steel coils, collided at the foot of the winding hill. Earl Moore of Columbus was the driver of the rig.

The vehicles bounced into an empty lot near Chaney's service station after the collision, knocking over a sign and damaging the blacktopping of the lot, the plaintiff contends. The car was shoved into a brick wall.

Eberhart, 52, his wife and Mrs. Grace Wedgewood of Louisiana Ave., who was riding in the rear seat, all were injured.

In testifying yesterday, Chaney produced 13 checks and cash receipts he said were used in payment for labor and materials to re-surface the lot.

A brick retaining wall also was damaged in the mishap, according to yesterday's testimony. Clyde Dudley Chaney, father of the service station operator, also was on the stand.

Shares In Fund Proceeds

YMCA Seen Community Center

MORE THAN A BUILDING. The stately YMCA structure at 4th and Washington Sts. is more than a building—it has been called a community center and the busiest in a 20-mile radius. It is one of the participating agencies in the Community Fund and serves as headquarters for the current fund campaign for $77,600 for the six groups sharing in the proceeds.

The YMCA is more than a place where small boys can play and learn to swim — it has become a community center, with facilities used by residents of a 20-mile radius.

This article, fourth in a series on Community Fund agencies, points out that aside from the Y's regular 1,600 members, it is used by some 3,200 other Tri-State residents.

THE GREATEST usage of Y facilities is, of course, by residents of East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester, Newell and Midland. However, some 12 other neighboring communities — Lisbon, West Point, Leetonia, Rogers, East Palestine, Negley, Columbiana, New Cumberland, Congo, Hookstown, Georgetown and Smiths Ferry — also use it for many purposes.

This Christian youth center has already served three generations of Tri-State citizens every day of the year. Swimming pool and gymnasium are closed each Sunday and holiday, but the Y doors are open to all races and creeds every other day.

Athletic facilities include an all-purpose gymnasium, with basketball court, running track, weight-room with workout equipment and handball court. The swimming pool is heated for year-round use. There are 45 rooms available for rental to men and young men. Through the year, at least 50 organizations use Y clubrooms for meetings with no rental fee charged — although a few make periodic donations to the Y or Community Fund.

Other non-member usage of the Y would include some 32 volleyball teams, of about 360 girls, businessmen, business women and adult church men, who participate in five tournaments conducted annually under Y sponsorship.

Some 450 men and boys take part in basketball tourneys held co-operatively with Church and Y Leagues . . . The Y also co-operates with the church leagues in a softball program in which some 300 young men play each year.

Both members and non-members are entered in the Y's "learn-to-swim" classes, held for all ages, both men and women, boys and girls.

Life-saving classes is another regular feature.

FROM TIME to time, special events are held at the Y. These might include the annual Toy Train derby with some 35 contestants which draws up to 600 spectators.

Practically everyone can join, there are no barriers as to race or religion.

When parents cannot afford the necessary fee, many adults generously provide "sponsored" memberships for youngsters who have been recommended by church or other agency leaders.

The development of Pine Ridge Camp on the West Branch of Beaver Creek is an accomplishment of which the 24 volunteer members of the YMCA Board, are very proud.

This beautiful camp site gave more than 500 area boys and girls a wonderful week of healthy outdoor life this past summer, at the modest fee of only $16 per youngster.

RECENT IMPROVEMENTS at the camp, including a new lodge, seven new cabins, a lake for fishing, the new roadway and entrance, are being paid for with income from the Vodrey-Y Endowment Fund, not from donations to or from the Community Fund.

The Y has an estimated budget of more than $67,000 for next year. All but about 2 per cent of this total will be spent right in this area to benefit those who live and work in this Tri-State region.

Some support for the National YMCA and its World Service Program is required of the local Y and this is the approximate 2 per cent mentioned previously. About half of the required income for the year will come from room rentals, memberships and miscellaneous activities; the other half, or about $33,400, must come through the Community Fund.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers? I am a member of the "modern institution called 'Sitters.'" But I certainly do not consider myself an "irresponsible, moronic, hollow-headed, impudent, vacuum cleaner with teeth."

I know exactly the type of woman who would complain. She is the one who greets the sitter at the door and tells her to "feed the kids something and put them in bed when they look tired." When she is half out the door she remembers that "Susie is next door and Debbie is out in the neighborhood some place."

When you go to the kitchen you find the sink filled with dirty dishes. You have to wash plates to give the children their supper. Why she worries about a sitter eating her out of house and home, I wouldn't know, because there's nothing much in her refrigerator.

She forgets to leave a calling number and if you needed her in an emergency it would be just too bad.

She promises to be home by midnight, but something always happens to detain her until 2:30—or later. When she goes to pay you she discovers she has nothing smaller than a $20 bill so she owes you till next time.

And these are the women who complain the loudest about sitters. — FULL UP.

Dinner For The Bride

Dear Ann: My husband is a working man and we are in modest circumstances. Our daughter is marrying a fine young fellow in January and we want to give her as pretty a wedding as we can afford.

We have planned a church ceremony and a dinner for relatives and close friends only. The bridegroom's mother sent her list yesterday and we almost fainted. She had 220. We kept our list down to 45.

When I phoned to express surprise at the size of her family she explained that her family is rather small and that most of the people on the list are her husband's customers.

We hate to have trouble at the outset, but we can't afford dinner for a crowd like this. What shall we do? — DISTRESSED.

Dear Distressed: You are paying for the dinner and it is your prerogative to decide how far you want to go.

Since these people wish to use the wedding as a business booster, suggest they give a reception after the honeymoon. They then can invite the whole town if they wish.

For now, explain that their list must be pared to 55 — which gives them 10 more than you have.

Attached To Ring

Dear Ann: Will you please print your opinion of a woman who is past 40 years of age and still is wearing her high school class ring? She wears her wedding band and diamond ring on one hand and the class ring on the other.

Dear One: It doesn't bother me a bit. Why are YOU so exercised?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

With Harpo, Silence Is Still Golden

This is Marie Torre's last newspaper column. She announced Monday that she plans to fullfill assignments in other fields in the future.

In this television era of much chatter, much sophistry and the light effusions of heedless men, it is reassuring to find at least one showman upholding the silence-is-golden rule.

Marie Torre

Though the advent of a "talking" Harpo Marx easily would rank with "Garbo speaks!" the mute member of the Marx Brothers has declined probably his 687,000th invitation to be heard on a coming NBC special titled "The Wonderful World of Toys" (Nov. 12).

He presents an incontestable argument. Ever since economy-minded TV producers discovered that talk really IS cheap, the industry, Marx says, has turned comedians into conversationalists, actors into orators, singers into magpies and authors into windbags.

"EVERYBODY ELSE in TV talks," Marx notes. "Why should I start now, after all these years of silence?'

But he didn't fully convince the show producers. Since he won't indulge in public speaking, they've engaged comedienne Carol Burnett to be his "voice."

"Well, they call her my 'voice,' but she won't be really," clarified Marx, who is totally unrecognizable as the frenetic clown when the curly wig is off.

"Actually Carol will function as a sort of narrator. Which is okay, if that's what they think they need. I myself see no point in breaking the sound barrier.

"What would it mean? So the people would hear me say hello and goodbye. All these years I've built an illusion. Why spoil it? Besides, nobody would believe his ears if I talked.

"WHY, I'LL BET you that the people who read this interview won't believe I actually spoke to you. Here at the hotel this morning I had to call the operator and when I told her who I was, she said, 'You're not! It can't be! You're kidding!' "

Ironically, it was the sound of a "voice" that prompted the hotel detective to knock on Marx' door the other afternoon. Marx had in his suite some of the unusual toys that will be seen on the coming show, and he was fasincated by a large-size talking doll which says, "I love you, give me a kiss."

"Then there was this knock on the door and the hotel detective says to me, 'Keep the girl's voice down.' Did I tell him it was only a doll? No, why let him think it wasn't a girl?"

"Every time I finish a TV performance, I say that's it!—my swan song! Then somebody comes along with a script I like and I'm in business again."

His only other professional activity is charity appearances with symphony orchestras, the same thing Jack Benny does. He's been doing these for almost 12 years because of a belief that "all symphonies are broke." He does not accept payment for these, largely because he doesn't need it.

Whether or not they work, the Marx brothers are today financially solvent, a condition attributed to astute business dealings during their success in motion pictures.

"CHICO MADE it possible for all of us to be comfortable long after the movies were made," said Harpo.

"Groucho likes to work regularly, but I like the easy life, I lead the perfect existence, I would say. I usually awaken about 6:30 every morning, and after breakfast I practice on the harp for two hours. Then I play a little golf, have lunch, and then paint for three hours.

"In the evenings, after dinner, I snooze a little and get up just in time to see the TV shows I like.

"Do I mind the interruption when a TV show comes along? Not this time. I'd be thinking too much about Chico if I weren't busy with a show."

WHAT'S THE FUTURE of direct telecasting to world receivers via space satellites? Vice President Johnson's prediction is that the first development will be direct FM broadcasts to home receivers to be followed by direct TV telecasts. . . .

In the opinion of LeRoy Collins, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, President Kennedy is not "unfriendly" to broadcasting. Collins said he recently was taken on a tour of the White House. "There by his four-poster bed," Collins said, "was a television set. That's an endorsement of braodcasting, I'd say." . . .

If Fred Astaire's "Premiere" maintains the high standards established by the first two shows, the series ought to prove once and for all that it's possible to do quality drama on a weekly basis.

Midland United Fund Drive Reaches 81 Per Cent Of Goal

Though lagging in some phases, the Midland Area United Fund campaign committee reported Monday evening that 81.8 per cent, or $37,212.91 of its goal of $45,471, has been achieved.

The additional 30 per cent over last week's reported 51 per cent came mostly from pledges of Crucible Steel Co. employes.

The area door-to-door canvass, scheduled Wednesday, has been postponed to Friday or Monday, depending upon completion of mill solicitation, Robert C. Kelker, general campaign chairman, said.

Volunteer workers in Ohioville and Fairview still are needed and may contact Kelker at the Crucible's Midland Works, where he is superintendent of the electrical department.

He reminded all who work in Midland, but live elsewhere, that the money they pledge will be sent to the charity groups of their areas.

All are asked to give a "fair share", or one half to one hour's pay per month for 12 months. Under the payroll deducation plan, employes may give by installments.

A film, "The Torch," was screened during the meeting of divisional chairmen and workers at Lincoln High School. It explained that only one campaign is being held as people had asked.

Carroll Miller of Beaver, a member of the Beaver Valley Toastmasters Club, gave a brief talk on the United Fund, pointing out that one out of four — or 50,000 Beaver Countians — will be aided by the United Fund during 1962.

He said the contributor has the satisfaction of knowing that 92 cents of each dollar given goes for the work intended, a good record, and the community gains by providing care for the handicapped, the aged, widows and children and wholesome recreation and civic training for youngsters.

The 41 health, welfare and character building agencies sharing include the Heart Association, Retarded Children's Chapter, Cancer Society, Mental Health Society, four hospitals, the Red Cross, Children's Home, Home for the Aged, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, all of Beaver County, the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation and the Midland Hot Stove League.

Mayor Urges City Vote On Amendment

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet today urged East Liverpool residents to approve the statewide "continuity of government" amendment at the Nov. 7 general election.

The non - partisan proposed Amendment 2, one of four state issues on the ballot, will authorize legislation to establish automatic line of succession for public officials, provide protection for essential records, establish control centers and alternate sites for government emergency operations, and insure the protection and maximum use of government personnel, resources and equipment, the mayor pointed out.

"Although this area might not be a target in event of war, we must plan for the many emergencies that could occur if the nation is attacked, and must prepare now to assure the continued functioning of effective civil government," Mayor Goodballet said.

Protective Diet Keeps Reducer Happy

Ida Jean Kain

"Whoever says a person on a diet is bad - tempered and hard to get along with has never weighed 195 pounds! So many people remark on my improved looks since I've reduced. Then they add how sorry they feel for my husband and children for what they must be going through while I'm dieting.

"Perhaps my disposition wasn't too good for the first couple of weeks while I was trying to get used to eating less — but it couldn't have been much worse than before I started dieting. I used to feel miserable and so sorry for myself because I was fat. The day I weighed in and found I had lost 5 pounds I whooped for joy and I got happier and happier as the excess pounds melted away.

"ONE THING that discouraged me before I started dieting was the thought that I would be hungry for all those months it took to get the fat off. That isn't true, either.

"I haven't felt hungry since those first two weeks. In seven months I have lost 46 pounds. While I still have 19 more pounds to lose I'm not trying to lose them in a hurry. It took me 10 years to gain all this excess. I intend to keep my weight right and I know that with my new eating habits I can. Thank you for all the help and encouragement through your column."

Three rousing cheers for that exultant homemaker. All those interested, tune in.

It's easy to rationalize that your disposition is sweeter when you are not trying to diet. You may honestly believe you couldn't possibly do all you have to do and diet too.

Stretch your mind with a new idea. If excess fat is making you miserable, you can be wonderfully happy while dieting to slim down. It takes energy to carry excess fat. By reducing on a protective diet you'll have more energy, not less.

Plan family meals around the protective foods: Lean meat, fish or fowl; skim milk, buttermilk or whole milk; cheese or cottage cheese; eggs, vegetables, fruits, whole grain cereal and bread and spread.

DIETERS should cut fats sharply, and keep food portions moderate.

The homemaker in today's story made the wise decision to reduce at a modest rate of 1¼ pounds a week. On 1,200 to 1,500 calories a day, depending on your activity, you can loose a pound a week, enjoy abundant fare, reduce without a wrinkle and keep your disposition sweet. Try it.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for new leaflet, "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Deaf To Mother's Reasoning

Most young mothers have been brainwashed into believing that they should be able to control the young tot by reasoning and persuading. But they are puzzled to find it doesn't work. A Michigan mother writes about her tot, four: "You can talk to this child for hours and hours explaining why he must not do a certain thing or things, yet he will go right on and do them. Sometimes he does things he knows he will be punished for. "I have tried your chair - sitting idea, but he cries all the time he's in the chair and makes a nervous wreck of me.

"HE DOESN'T seem to be jealous of his three - month - old brother, but will deliberately hurt him. He was keeping dry all night before the baby came but now he's started wetting again.

"He gets plenty of love and affection, more now, I think than before the baby came."

My reply in part:

Your main trouble is that you waste so much time with words trying to keep him from doing what he already knows he shouldn't. Decide, you and Dad, on the few things he must not do, that you can check.

When he does such a thing, don't try to explain or persuade. Turn him over your knee and smack him. Be sure it hurts.

To be effective, the punishment must be immediate and without exception, not after you have shouted. No several times.

IF HE WILL stay in the chair for the time you state, use it for punishment instead. Make it for exactly 20 minutes. Should he get down too soon, spank him soundly.

It's silly of you to let his crying bother you. Let him cry all he likes while in the chair. When he learns his crying can't change the clock or change you, he will decide, by and by, not to cry but to serve his sentence stoically.

Because your management of him is ineffective, you and he feel annoyed at each other most of the time and can't enjoy mutual affection.

Naturally he feels he is not loved as much as the baby is. Protect the baby from him, of course, but hardly by punishing him.

I HOPE DAD spends a lot of time with this boy — reading to him, making things with him, explaining things to him, answering his questions and having all sorts of fun with him.

Be generous with deserving praise.

When he feels more loved and secure, his bed - wetting will almost surely stop.

My bulletins, "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," "Psychology Applied to Bed-Wetting" and "Love and Restraint," may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remedy wooden drawer knobs that have a tendency to work loose on their screws?

A. Try sanding the back surface of the knob to a slight bevel. In this way, the knob twists slightly on the threaded bolt when it is tightened, gripping the drawer front securely.

Q. How can I get more "mileage" from my sandpaper?

A. You'll accomplish this if you'll brush it with a stiff, dry scrubbing brush when the surface of the paper becomes clogged with powdered wood or paint. After a good brushing, you'll find the sandpaper will "cut" again.

Q. How can I remove the indelible ink stains of a ballpoint pen from materials?

A. By sponging the spots with cotton soaked in rubbing alcohol.

Official Made Mistake . . .

Beaver Local followers have reason to complain about their team's, 14-8, loss Saturday night to Carrollton, but it is water over the dam now and nothing can be done about it.

One of the three officials who worked the game made a big mistake by yelling "free ball". The call confused Beaver Local's Francis Possage and led to a Carrollton touchdown and eventual victory.

William "Butch" Vinovich, one of the officials who worked Saturday's game, said the official in question shouldn't have said anything. According to Possage and a Carrollton player, the official did shout "free ball."

In Ohio, a ball rolling into the end zone on a punt is playable. If the ball rolls dead in the end zone it is an automatic touchback and the ball is brought out to the 20-yard line. That's what should have happened Saturday night.

Pennsylvania and West Virginia rules read that a ball going into the end zone is an automatic touchback and cannot be played. The ball is then brought out to the 20-yard line.

Possage knew what to do, because he started to walk away from the ball, but when the official yelled he feared that by declaring a "free ball" Carrollton could fall on the pigskin for a touchdown.

The term the official should have used was "live ball" or "ball is in play", but as pointed out before he would have been wiser not to have said anything. The term "free ball" was not the right one to use in this case.

It knocks Beaver Local out of a chance for an undefeated season and places a burden on the coaching staff to get the team up for two tough contests in a row. The Beavers meet West Branch, a powerhouse from up around Salem, this Saturday and next week face arch rival Wellsville.

WILLIAM "Bill" Dunn, an all-County selection while performing for the Beaver Local High School football squad, has been promoted to Storekeeper Petty Officer 3C. Bill is serving with the Navy at San Juan, Puerto Rico, and is a member of the base basketball team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn of Lisbon R. D 3.

Zelch Recovering . . .

IDLED a couple of weeks because of an ankle injury, East Liverpool's Dave Zelch will resume practice this week with the University of Miami football squad.

Trainer Dave Wike expects Zelch to be ready to play Friday when Miami meets the University of North Carolina.

Zelch, a sophomore, has stamped himself as a brilliant deep defender against long passes and his loss, was felt as Miami dropped two successive games to Navy and Colorado.

JIM POTTS, the ex-Potter, got in on the scoring act in Bowling Green's 21-6 victory over Kent State Saturday when he flipped a 55-yard TD pass. The falcons remain undefeated and are attempting to sweep to a Mid-American Conference title.

Little Potters League Busy . . .

THE LITTLE Potters League installed two new baskets at the Pleasant Heights school giving that area a paved basketball court.

The work could never have been completed so soon without the help of Bob Freed who donated his time and equipment and did all the welding for the project.

The league now has installed a large blacktop court in Thompson Park, one basket at Garfield school and the two new buckets on the Heights.

Next on the agenda for the Little Potters is to install another basket at Garfield giving that area a full court and to place a basket at the Glenmoor school.

THE local Jaycees are laying plans to hold a state track and field meet in East Liverpool next year in connection with Operation Fitness—U. S. A.

The events are open to youths age 9 through 18. Last year's state finals were held at Hiram College and several city athletes participated.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

BOB MACKALL is using his football background to advantage at Northwestern, where he is a sophomore.

The former Potter halfback is writing a 1,000-word theme on Otto Graham. one-time star quarterback for the Cleveland Browns, for a course in basic writing. He also prepared a paper on "Pre-Game Tension."

Mackall saw four minutes of action against Illinois, but wasn't called on for duty in the Minnesota or Ohio State games.

SINCE THE New Philadelphia Quakers lost to East Liverpool, they have caught fire, winning three straight games to bring their record to the .500 mark for the season.

The latest win was a 14-6 verdict over Lou Venditti's Lincoln Lions. Lou's team is now 4-2 for the season after losing two straight.

MASSILLON was behind for the first time in the 1961 season Friday when Mansfield's all - Ohio candidate Henry Weaver ran back the opening kickoff 87 yards to give his team a 6-0 lead.

It didn't take long however for Massillon to claw back. The final score showed Ohio's No. 1 team with a 34-6 edge.

NILES IS undefeated and from what we saw in the opening game with East Liverpool has a fine football team. One question though: Although Niles has won by lopsided scores, who have they played outside of Steubenville Central?

There are several Pennsylvania schools on the schedule. Niles' latest victory was a 66-8 victory over Akron Kenmore. According to several coaches from Akron Central, with whom we talked Friday night, Kenmore is a soft touch around the Akron area.

Niles could answer our question as to whether it is a great team or not when Alliance invades that city Nov. 10.

ANYONE interested in forming a City Basketball League this season please contact yours truly at the Review. The Little Potters League will not operate the loop this season but is attempting to set it up.

Hoppel Maintains Scoring Lead

"Unstoppable" Carl Hoppel maintained his lead in the district scoring race over the weekend, getting a touchdown and a two-points conversion in Beaver Local's 14-8 upset loss to Carrollton.

It marked the seventh straight game of the campaign that the 140-pound senior fullback has crossed an opponent's goal line at least once.

With 10 touchdowns and a bundle of conversions to his credit, Hoppel kept his slim lead intact in the scoring race over Santon Local's Stan Wickham. Hoppel has 73 points.

Wickham, 140 - pound halfback, got two touchdowns and two one-point conversions to boost his season total to 68 while the Irons were romping over Newell, 46-0. He's managed to score in every game but one for the Irons.

The remainder of the field trails far behind the two pint-sized leaders who are performing for the district's top-record schools.

Midland's Earl Vaughn, a quarterback, is third in line with 54 points Following are Lisbon's Gary Peruchetti, Larry Marks of United, and Francis Possage of Beaver Local.

This week's action starts a day earlier than usual because of a teacher's meeting. Set for Thursday night games are Wellsville High and Stanton Local.

Wellsville (3-4) goes against Jefferson Union (4-3), a team that is nearly always "up", for a battle with the Tigers. The game at Nicholson Stadium will highlight Wellsville's homecoming.

Top-ranked Stanton Local (6-1) meets Brilliant (3-3-1) at Irondale, with the kickoff set for 7:30 p. m.

★ ★ ★ This Week's Card Gets Underway Thursday ★ ★ ★

Jefferson Union fell to Follansbee in its last game, 20-6, while Wellsville was losing to Salem, 16-8. However, Coach Ken Woods' Tigers turned in perhaps their best performance of the year.

Brilliant tied weak Smithfield in a scoreless duel last week. Stanton Local, under new coach Don McBride, rolled to a 46-0 victory over Newell.

The district's "surprise" squad of the year — New Cumberland — draws a bead on its sixth straight victory Friday night in entertaining Mt. Pleasant.

Leading Coach John Kuzio's Blue Raiders into a homecoming game at New Cumberland will be fullback Allen Pettit and quarterback Allen Katzenmeyer, two of the district's point leaders. Each has accumulated 37 for the year.

East Liverpool's young Potters (2-4) will be out to rebound from a loss to Akron Central in going against Bellaire St. John's at Patterson Field Friday night.

South Side (3-3) closes out a mediocre season in hosting Northwestern, and Newell (0-7) looks for its first win in entertaining Cameron, in other Friday night clashes.

Elsewhere, Midland meets invading New Brighton, Chester journeys to St. Mary's, and Boardman visits Salem.

Tri-County League action finds Lisbon at Leetonia in a battle to escape from the league cellar, and Columbiana at Louisville.

Leetonia is 0-5 for the league, and Lisbon, 1-4. The loser will undoubtedly end up last in the league standings.

Featuring Saturday's card will be Beaver Local's comeback attempt against strong West Branch. The game appears fairly even in comparative scores against a common foe.

Beaver Local defeated United Local, 12-0, while West Branch won over the Golden Eagles, 14-8.

East Palestine, stung by a 20-0 defeat to Minerva, travels to Poland to take on the Tri - County League leaders. Poland, unbeaten in six starts, is favored in this one.

Other Saturday games find Salineville (0-5-1) at United Local (4-3) and Western Reserve at Crestview (2-5).

To Be Settled Next Year

NCAA Proposal May Mean End Of AAU Rule In U.S.

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union are involved in a life and death struggle that probably will be settled early next year.

If the NCAA wins, it probably will mean the end of the AAU as an effective administrative body over United States amateur sports.

If the AAU wins, the organization will emerge stronger than ever.

The battlefield is the control of basketball in this country.

The NCAA has proposed the formation of a United States Basketball Federation to govern the sport. There would be five parties. In addition to the NCAA, it would be composed of the AAU, the Inter-service Council (for the armed forces), the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations (for high schools) and the YMCA.

Under the proposed federation, all five organizations would have a say in the governing of the game. If it goes into effect, the AAU would be stripped of its current authority.

However, the catch is that in order to function, the federation would have to be recognized by the International Amateur Basketball Body (FIBA). Right now the AAU is the United States representative.

"We have held four meetings with the AAU in order to try to put this thing through," said NCAA Executive Secretary Walter Byers today as the group's council went into the second day of its fall meeting. "We have made no appreciable progress.

"Maybe we were naive. But we thought that the AAU would realize there how deep the unrest was and figured they would welcome more representation.

"We came to the conclusion that they didn't know of the unrest. This all comes from the coaches and we had nothing to do with it."

Byers said the NCAA and the AAU would hold one more meeting on Dec. 6 in Washington in connection with the AAU convention. Then, if things are not settled — and there appears little hope that any progress will be made — the new federation will apply to the FIBA for membership.

Michigan State Widens Lead Over Mississippi

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan State widened its lead over Mississippi among major colleges today in the weekly poll of The Associated Press' 48-man committee of football writers and sportscasters. A 17-7 victory over previously unbeaten Notre Dame gave the Spartans a 40-point edge over Mississippi, which had trailed by only two points last week.

Coach Duffy Daugherty's sturdy Michigan State team, led by fullback George Saimes, collected 29 first place votes on the strength of their second half performance against Notre Dame. In the point score it was Michigan State 444, Mississippi 404.

Despite a 41-0 romp over Tulane in a night game, powerful Mississippi lost some support and received only 11 first place ballots, compared to its 21-16 edge over the Spartans last week.

Texas held tight to third place with three firsts after mandhandling Arkansas 33-7 and Alabama moved ahead of Iowa, taking over fourth position on its 34-3 triumph over Tennessee. Iowa dropped a peg to fifth, despite its 47-15 smothering of Wisconsin.

The top ten with points on a 10-9-8-7 etc. basis, with first place votes in parentheses:

1.	Michigan State (29)	444
2.	Mississippi (11)	404
3.	Texas (3)	372
4.	Alabama (4)	331
5.	Iowa (1)	327
6.	Ohio State	235
6.	Louisiana State	128

Pros, Amateurs Set For $19,500 Classic

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A field of 88 pros and three times that many amateurs tee off today in the $19,500 Sahara Pro-Am Golf Tournament.

Injury-plagued Doug Sanders—third top money winner on this year's circuit with $56,000 — was unsure whether he'd be able to play. He has had neck trouble.

Spahn, Donovan Win ERA Titles

NEW YORK (AP) — Warren Spahn of Milwaukee and Dick Donovan of Washington are the major leagues' earned run leaders for 1961.

The veteran left-hander also won the title in 1947 and 1953.

Donovan has plenty to crow about. Associated Press statistics compiled Monday showed he yielded 45 earned runs in 169 innings for a 2.40 mark.

He thus became the first Washington pitcher to win the crown since 1938 when Garland Braxton led the league. Donovan recently was traded to Cleveland.

Tigers Retain Comfortable Margin; Niles 2nd, Alliance 3rd In Voting

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The challengers picked up a few poll points today, but Massillon's defending champions retained a comfortable lead in the weekly Associated Press high school football ratings.

For a minute and 39 seconds last Friday, a big upset was in the making as Massillon met once-beaten Mansfield. Henry Weaver of the Tygers, Ohio's fastest runner, took the opening kickoff and wended his way 87 yards through the Tigers to give Mansfield a 6-0 lead.

That's the only time this year Massillon has been behind, and the Stark Countians didn't like it. With the game only a minute and 54 seconds old, the Massillons had a touchdown of their own and an extra point for a 7-6 edge to nullify the great run by the state dash and hurdles king. Massillon won the game 34-6 and knocked the fourth-rated Tygers right out of the poll's Top 10.

Also ousted was Dayton Dunbar, which made its first appearance in the elite group last week. Dayton was dumped 36-6 by Cincinnati Elder. Cincinnati Purcell, fifth-rated, was a 40-20 victim of Louisville Flaget, top team in Kentucky, but the loss didn't hurt Purcell's Buckeye standing.

Niles McKinley clung to second place and picked up 38 poll points on Massillon on the 10-9-8-etc. basis.

Alliance held third, but Hamilton Garfield hopped from sixth to fourth. Cincinnati Roger Bacon climbed two notches to sixth, and Sandusky stayed in the seventh spot. Bellevue retained 10 — a single poll point ahead of Toledo Macomber.

From here and there: Martins Ferry, with 24 straight wins and unbeaten in the last 30, shoots for statewide recognition Friday as it goes against 13th-ranked Steubenville, loser only to Massillon.

Steubenville whipped Canton McKinley 24-19 last week as Harry Wilson, 170-pound halfback, scored twice to run his seven-game touchdown total to 13.

Sandusky's Steward Williams gained 134 rushing and scored twice for a 96-point season total in the 18-0 win over Lorain.

Cardington's Larry Coomer has 132 points for six games. In the 76-0 rout of Scioto Valley he scored on runs of 30, 35 and 36 yards, caught a 36-yard scoring pass, ran for four extra points and tossed a 47-yard touchdown heave.

Marion Harding's Al Henson rushed for 181 yards and scored three times in the 44-13 win over Findlay.

Jackson, down in the hill country, has a 12-game winning streak going. And Hamilton Catholic has copped 26 of the last 27.

Everybody plays football at Massillon. Junior Will Paisley told one of the coaches, during a hallway conversation, he could kick a football but didn't care much about the rest of the game. He was invited to come out and show his wares. He did, and after two weeks of practicing got his chance against Mansfield. He kicked four conversions in four tries.

Negro Kills Barmaid In Tavern Robbery

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A young Negro shot and killed a barmaid in the robbery of an East Side tavern Monday night, police said.

Mrs. Bessie Lasky, 68, died of a gunshot wound in the chest shortly after arrival at Mount Carmel Hospital. When the shooting occurred, she was alone in the National Grill with her assailant, police said.

Two customers had been in the bar when the robber walked in and ordered a beer. But the two left, police said, while Mrs. Lasky was questioning her murderer about his age. The two customers returned shortly to find Mrs. Lasky in a chair, bleeding. She told them who shot her.

The gunman, about 19, escaped with an undetermined amount of cash from the register.

Jim Gentile Is AL's Soph Of The Year

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Wriet r

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Gentile of the Baltimore Orioles, who tied a one-season major league record with five grand slam home runs in 1961, was named American League Sophomore of the Year today.

The strapping first baseman was picked by 149 of the 170 members of the Baseball Writers Association taking part in the annual poll conducted by The Associated Press. Pitcher Steve Barber, a teammate of Gentile's, was a distant second with 12 votes.

Gentile, 27, a southpaw swinger, wielded a sizzling bat, both for average and distance. The Californian hit .302 and tied for seventh among the league's leading batsmen.

His 46 home runs tied him with Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew for third in the American League home run derby behind Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle. He drove in 141 runs, one less than Maris, the RBI leader.

Among Gentile's other accomplishments in his sophomore season were two grand-slam home runs in a game to tie a major league mark, two homers in a game seven times and nine RBI in a game. He scored 96 runs and his 147 hits included 25 doubles and 2 triples.

Gentile spent eight years in the Dodgers' chain before the Orioles bought him for $25,000 on a conditional basis after the 1959 season. He failed to impress the Baltimore brass in spring training camp.

Once the 1960 regular season got underway, the 6-foot-3, 200-pounder began to click with his whiplash batting stroke. He finished his rookie campaign with a .292 average, 21 homers and 98 runs batted in.

Newhouser Signed As Cleveland Scout

CLEVELAND (AP)—Hal Newhouser, who helped pitch Detroit to American League pennants in 1940 and 1945 and was on the Cleveland Indians' 1954 pennant winning team, has joined the Indians as a liaison man in the clubs' farm organization.

Newhouser will scout and act as a pitching coach for the Indian minor league teams.

The Indians learned Monday that Jim (Mudcat) Grant has been called into the Army for a one-year hitch. Grant, who led the Cleveland pitching corps with a 15-9 record last season, reports Nov. 2 to Fort Belvoir, Va.

Potter Subs Drop 1st To Beaver Squad

Beaver scored on a 35 - yard punt return in the second quarter and then added the conversion for the only touchdown of the contest.

The Potters scored a safety later in the second period when Earl Olmstead tackled a Beaver back in the end zone.

Social Security Requirement Cut Under New Laws

The 1961 amendments to the Social Security Law have reduced the requirements needed to qualify for monthly benefits, William J. McCauley, manager of the Youngstown Social Security District Office, explained today.

As a result of these changes, more people can become insured more quickly, he said. Under the new law, McCauley pointed out, a person needs only one calendar quarter of coverage for each year following 1950, up to, but not including, the year a male worker becomes 65 or a woman worker reaches 62.

As an example of this new rule, McCauley explained, a woman who becomes 62 in 1961 now needs 2½ years of work (10 quarters of coverage). A minimum of six quarters of coverage still is needed to get benefits. This is the equivalent of 1½ years of work.

A quarter of coverage is earned when a person is paid at least $50 in a calendar quarter in any employment covered by social security, the manager said, and a person who is self - employed earns four quarters of coverage for each year in which his business profit is $400 or more.

Many older people who did not work long enough under the old law may now be eligible for benefits, he added. These benefits are not automatic, however, and an application still must be filed. Anyone who was told in the past that he could not get retirement benefits because he did not work long enough should immediately get in touch with his social security office to see if he is eligible for payments under the 1961 amendments, McCauley said.

The Social Security Office servicing Mahoning and Columbiana Counties is located at 123 W. Commerce St., Youngstown. The local office is in the basement of the Post Office.

City Boy, 15, Receives 3 Months Detention

A 15-year-old city youth was sentenced to three months in detention in the County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon, and two others were fined $25 each for the theft of auto hubcaps on W. 6th St. Sunday.

The boys were apprehended by city police along with Lyle Ray Adkins, 18, of Calcutta and Eugene Bowyer, 26, of Glenmoor who were fined $25 each and given suspended jail terms yesterday by Municipal Judge Samuel Chertoff.

The 15-year-old youth is to be placed with the County Welfare Department after the detention period, Judge Tobin ruled.

The other youths, 16 and 17, were placed on probation in the custody of their parents.

Woman's Freed On $2,000 Bond In Bank Fraud

GRAFTON, W. Va. (AP) — Everything at the bank seemed so normal that "you wouldn't have known there was anything wrong."

That was the way one woman employe of the First National Bank of Grafton put it after the news that another bank employe had been charged with concealing shortages of $26,146.61 hit this railroad community.

Free on $2,000 bond after waiving preliminary hearing at Fairmont is Mrs. Annabell P. Wilson, 40-year-old teller at the bank for the last eight years. The warrant, issued at Wheeling, charges her with falsifying the bank's records.

Bank officials said depositors would stand no losses as a result of the alleged irregularities.

Mrs. Wilson has a daughter, age 21.

Mrs. Wilson's arrest stunned the 20 or so bank employes.

One bank worker, who described Mrs. Wilson as "a very likeable person said: I am shocked. That's all. You just never expect that someone working with you would be involved in something like that."

A federal grand jury was to convene at Wheeling today, but U.S. Atty. Robert E. Maxwell said it was unlikely that the case would be presented soon, because it still is being investigated.

Council Sets 2 Nights For Lisbon Treat

LISBON — In an effort to limit the problem of children's Halloweening, Council Monday set two nights — Oct 30 and 31 — for trick-or-treat forays and cautioned parents to see that the youngsters do not go out on other nights for door-to-door collecting of season goodies.

In other business, council authorized the use of State Route 30 and 164 within the village as a detour for Route 644 between Kensington and Millport.

The club has a 99-year lease on the building but would like to purchase it outright if the village will waive its option. This will be checked in the abstract files. Council discussed the same proposal in May 1959 but took no official action.

Mayor Dean Stockman reported on the leaf removal machine street workers are using since it was repaired. He also reported the police department has started a drive delinquent parking tickets.

Council discussed establishing a four-way stop at Chestnut and Jefferson Sts. due to the slippery conditions of hill on Jefferson. The street committee will investigate and report at the next meeting.

Council also discussed complaints on septic tanks within the village limits and whether property owners could connect with sewer lines where available.

Councilman Fred Steele was instructed to check with owners who are having trouble and to see if sewer lines are available.

Paul Kuhns, president of the Board of Public Affairs, advised the mayor yesterday the board has not obtained the full amount of the share of the cost of installing 500 feet of storm sewer from Spruce St. to Pendleton St. west of N. Beaver St.

The board proposed that Council split the costs of the sewer pipe. He said he hopes to have the full amount by the next meeting Nov. 13.

Courtney Pennell, manager of the Lisbon office of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., will screen a film for the meeting.

Bills in the amount of $4,436 were read and ordered paid.

Apple Throwers Due Hearings Thursday

LISBON — Leroy Hawkins of Kensington and Fred A. Glasser of Hanoverton R. D. 1, both 18, will receive hearings Thursday evening before Mayor Harry Loudon of Hanoverton for speeding and throwing apples out of a moving car.

Constables Roy Painter and Leroy Ridgway were patroling north of Route 9 when their cruiser was struck with apples. They turned around and pursued the car, finally overtaking it on Route 644 southwest of Hanoverton.

Three Hanoverton juveniles, 14, 15 and 17 in the car, will be given hearings before Juvenile Officer Cornelious Csepke.

Constable Painter recovered almost a bushel of apples in the car.

Their parents said they believed the group had gone to a movie, Painter said.

West End Fire Set By Overheated Stove

Fall's first case of an overheated stove was blamed for a fire Monday night in a West End home.

Firemen said the overheated stove set fire to a wall in the frame home of Anna Fenton, 942 Fairview St. The fire extended to the ceiling before the department arrived, firemen said.

The alarm was received at 9:10 p. m. with two trucks responding.

Soviet Gets Fallout In Bomb Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union is getting a backfire of radioactive fallout today from its mammoth nuclear explosion, U.S. Weather Bureau scientists reported.

They said the fallout was carried on winds blowing south to southeast over the U.S.S.R.

The massive blast, triggered Monday in the atmosphere over the Novaya Zemlya region in the arctic, may have been the 50-megaton explosion that Soviet Premier Khrushchev had announced. But the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said it doubts the detonation was that big.

The AEC said the blast's yield "was very high, possibly as high as 50 megatons." But it added that preliminary analysis "indicates it was more probably on the border of 30 megatons."

There has been no word from the Soviet Union on the explosion.

But either size, it was biggest man-made explosion in history. A 30-megaton bomb releases energy equivalent to 30 million tons of TNT. It would carry more punch than all the previously announced 21 tests in the current Soviet series. The largest previous Soviet test was estimated at about 10 megatons. The biggest U.S. nuclear test has been reported at 15 to 20 megatons.

Robert List, chief of the Weather Bureau's atmospheric radioactivity project, said the Soviet Union "would get more of the immediate fallout" from the explosion than other areas.

Since it was likely the bomb was fired high in the atmosphere, List said only a small fraction of the fallout would sift down immediately, that the greater portion of it would be sucked into the stratosphere and would come down perhaps next spring.

Two U.S. scientists said, however, that in the long run the United States will get most of the fallout.

In Rochester, N.Y., physicist Ralph Lapp said "because of the latitude at which they test, we get most of the fallout from the Russian bombs."

Lapp, who worked on the project that produced the first atomic bomb, was asked if fallout increased directly with the size of the bomb. He replied: "I can only answer that with a qualified yes. It depends on the construction of the bomb."

In New York, Nobel prize-winning chemist Dr. Harold C. Urey said the fallout from the Soviet

Protests, Rioting Spread Against Soviet Bomb Test

LONDON (AP) — Protests and demonstrations spread throughout the non-Communist world today against Soviet detonation of a giant hydrogen bomb.

Government leaders, scientists and newspapers, especially in Western Europe and Japan, expressed shock and horror at the 30-to-50 megaton blast set off in the arctic Monday. India's Prime Minister Nehru said he was "deeply pained and shocked."

The Russian people themselves were unaware of the blast, not reported either by the Soviet government or press.

In Italy, tens of thousands of high school and university students marched out of classes and paraded through streets in a dozen cities in protest against the Soviet blast. In Manila, more than 7,500 Filipino college students were reported to have signed a petition urging the Soviet Union to halt further tests.

British pacifist and philosopher Earl Bertrand Russell, 89, led a ban-the-bomb delegation to the Soviet Embassy in London to deliver a protest letter and said afterward: "We had a nice interview, but in the end it was too much for the (Soviet) charge d'affaires."

Russell said the Russians told him there would be no fallout from the blast. But British Defense Minister Harold Watkinson said the British government is taking steps to make substitutes for fresh milk which might be contaminated from the Soviet blast.

He said preliminary evidence from the huge Soviet blast and its accompanying smaller one "suggests a yield of the order of 30 megatons."

In Australia, however, officials of the Commonwealth Scientific Industrial Research Organization said its measurements indicated the Russian explosion was in the 50 megaton region. They said shock waves from the explosion—8,800 miles away—were still being registered today.

West Europe's newspapers were almost unanimous in their condemnation of the explosion as an act of terrorism without any scientific justification.

Japanese were alarmed by a warning from experts there that highly radioactive rain and dust from the blast would reach their shores around Friday.

The Tokyo government called a conference of scientists to decide whether the expected levels of radiation would be harmful to humans. The experts sought ways of coping with water and vegetable contamination.

The Norwegian parliament was debating a proposed resolution protesting Soviet atmospheric tests when word of the mammoth blast was received. A Socialist deputy termed the Soviet explosion an "abominable" act and recommended the resolution be amended to make it stronger. But the original resolution was adopted when other legislators contended that any delay might be considered weakness.

Newspapers in Scandinavia grimly noted that the atmosphere had received the largest single dose of radioactivity to date.

Nehru declared that "such tests not only contaminate the atmosphere but pollute the hearts and minds of people everywhere."

"How can peace be established if the big powers continue their armaments race?" he asked.

Morton St. Woman Hit By Gunfire

Ex-Mate Wounds Self As Authorities Close In On Woods

Ralph Newtz, 922 Morton St. shot himself about 1:40 p. m., according to witnesses at the scene, as police closed in during a hunt for him.

His former wife Nedra, meanwhile, lay on a table in the emergency room at City Hospital with at least two gunshot wounds suffered at the hands of her former spouse.

She ran from her home, neighbors said, to the home of William Wolfe, 923 Bank St., and collapsed shortly after 1 p. m.

An ambulance was summoned to take her to the hospital and police were notified.

Officers sped to the scene and, unable to locate Newtz immediately, began a search of the wooded area nearby, witnesses said.

Shortly after 1:40, Newtz shot himself, but it was not learned immediately how serious the wound was.

Newtz was found lying a pool of blood in one room of his home, wounded in the head.

3 Yanks Defy Latest Berlin Travel Curb

Communist Police 'Back Down' On New Restriction

BERLIN (AP) — East Berlin border guards backed down Monday night when three Americans defied a new Communist restriction on travel through the Berlin wall.

After a dispute Sunday between the border guards and the deputy chief of the U.S. occupation mission in Berlin, East Germany's Red regime announced all Allied personnel in civilian clothes would have to show identification papers to East German police when passing between the Soviet and Allied sectors of Berlin.

Monday night three Americans in civilian dress, identified only as members of the U.S. occupation mission, drove up to the only crossing point still open to Allied personnel.

The driver of the car said that when an East German policeman stopped him, "I told him I was not going to show him my papers. There was a brief argument and then I was allowed to pass."

The trio returned three hours later and again refused to show their papers. After another argument, they were allowed to pass into West Berlin.

The Western Allies, contending that all of Berlin is still technically under Western-Soviet occupation, have refused to accept East German controls. Western military personnel are ordered not to show identification papers to the East German police.

There was no immediate official U.S. comment on the new East German restriction.

The East Germans stopped a car carrying E. Allan Lightner Jr., deputy chief of the U.S. mission, when Lightner refused to show his papers Sunday night. He and his wife were allowed to pass only after an armed escort of eight American soldiers surrounded his car and escorted him past the border guards.

U.S. Fails To Blast Discoverer Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) —Discoverer XXXIII has failed to achieve orbit, setting back further the program which was designed to perfect a way to recover packages from space.

During the three years the program has encompassed, only eight capsules have been recovered.

School Bus Mishap Kills 4, Injures 18

KAPUSKASING, Ont. (AP)—A U.S. Air Force School bus slammed into the back of a gravel truck near here Monday, killing the driver and three children and injuring 18 others.

Airman James Harris, 21, of Lakeland, Fla., the bus driver, was killed when his vehicle plowed into the truck, one of several hauling gravel for construction near this northern Ontario town.

The son and daughter of the commanding officer of the U.S. radar base at nearby Lowther, Maj. Arthur Fox of Chicago, were killed. Melvyn Fox, 11, and his sister Karen, 12, were sitting in the front passenger seat. Their brother Gregory was among the injured.

John Morgan, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morgan, who come from Wisconsin, died in a hospital here during the night.

Five of the injured children were flown to the hospital at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Akron, Ohio. They are Lagry Brown, 10; Debbie Stuland, 8; Jean and Joe Swain, both 7; and Michael Newcomb, 11.

Adenauer To Reveal His Plans On Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy received a message from Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany today outlining the German position on the Berlin problem.

Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe delivered it in a one-hour conference at the White House. He said afterward the letter was an answer to the message Kennedy sent to the chancellor earlier this month.

Grewe declined to reveal the contents of the message brought back over the weekend after a 10-day trip to Bonn and a visit to West Berlin.

He said he would spell out the German position at a meeting of the Western ambassadorial steering group later at the State Department.

Castro Reports Plot To Kill Him Foiled

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro reported today that his police had thwarted a new plot to assassinate him.

In a speech to a meeting of the Young Rebels' Association, the Cuban prime minister said a counter-revolutionary group had mounted bazookas in an apartment a block and a half from the presidential palace but that the police discovered them before an attempt was made on his life.

It was the second plot against Castro's life reported this month. Authorities had announced they had uncovered a plan to kill the prime minister in front of the Havana Sports Stadium.

U.S., Soviet Near Accord On U.N. Post

Stevenson, Zorin Confer 8th Time On Secretary Job

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —U.S. and Soviet delegates scheduled another meeting today in an attempt to clear the final hurdle blocking agreement on an interim secretary-general for the United Nations.

Diplomats hoped the meeting between Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin, their eighth since Dag Hammarskjold perished in an African plane crash five weeks ago, might finally resolve the stalemate preventing the U.N. Assembly from naming a new head for the secretariat.

Zorin told reporters the only issue remaining was how many principal advisers the U.N. chief should choose from among his undersecretaries. Stevenson said it was not a question of numbers but of whether the advisers would be "geographical representatives or whether it's a political division."

A group of black African nations readied a demand for a sweeping diplomatic and economic boycott of South Africa as debate began on the republic's white supremacist policies.

Ghana had originally included a demand in the resolution that South Africa be expelled from the United Nations but informants said a number of African countries had balked at such a drastic step.

In the assembly's main political committee Soviet opposition killed a move by Norway for an immediate vote on a demand that the Soviet Union cancel its 50-megaton hydrogen bomb test.

Schuck Dies In Chair After Suicide Try

Beaver Murderer Electrocuted After Minor Wrist Cuts

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — Tight-lipped and outwardly calm, Arthur G. Schuck, a 44-year-old one-time electrician from Beaver, Pa., County, died in the electric chair Monday night for the 1958 ambush slaying of another man.

Schuck's execution at the Rockview Correctional Institution marked the first time Pennsylvania had imposed the death penalty since Oct. 26, 1959.

Schuck was strapped into the chair at 10:01 p.m. He was pronounced dead at 10:04 p.m.

He kept his head bowed as he walked with the Rev. Kenneth Anderson, prison chaplain.

Only when he was being strapped in the chair did he look up to gaze momentarily into the eyes of the 12 witnesses who were gathered outside the death cham-

Atmospheric Tests By U.S. Held Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., said today the Soviet Union's explosion of a massive nuclear device may forece U.S. resumption of atmospheric testing.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, discounted the claim of Soviet Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky that the Soviets have solved the problem of destroying rockets in flight.

But the Montana senator said no one can be sure that the Soviets have not made some progress in developing an antimissile missile in their series of high-altitude shots. He said it is his understanding that atmospheric tests are necessary to perfect such a missile.

Anderson, a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said he regards it as likely that the United States will fire off an above-ground explosion relatively soon.

Mansfield said the Russians are endangering their own people, as well as other in the Northern Hemisphere, with the fallout from their series of tests.

"They are certainly guilty of indirect aggression against the countries that lie in the path of that fallout," he said.

Beaver Authorities Raid Freedom Lodge

At the lodge, the pair confiscated five punch boards, a horoscope slot machine and a fish bowl with "Lucky 7" chances. At the club, they confiscated a slot machine called "The Big Roundup," which is operated by an electric button instead of a lever.

Steward said the devices will be demolished and an investigation will follow to determine if any arrests can be made.

Won't Meet Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy will not hold a news conference this week, the White House announced late Monday. His last meeting with newsmen was Oct. 11.

Negotiations Recessed In Mine Strike

New Talks Subject To Call By Either Side Or Mediator

Negotiations have been recessed in the strike of 28 clay miners at the Pleasant Valley mine off Route 45 near Wellsville.

"No progress" was reported by both the H. K. Porter Co. and United Brick & Clayworkers Union after a three-hour session Monday in the Travelers Hotel.

Talks have been recessed subject to call by either side or G. W. Woomer, federal conciliator from the Pittsburgh office of the Federal Mediation Board.

The miners are striking over the company's rejection of a demand for a 70-cent hourly blanket increase for all job classifications.

The demand was shaved for the negotiations Monday, but apparently was rejected by the Porter Co.

Porter Co. officials said earlier they cannot meet the demand and offered an 8-cent hourly increase plus a 1½-cent cost-of-living hike.

The strike, eight days old today, has closed the Champion brick producing plant of the Porter Co. at Silver Switch, and the wire cut production section of the Buckeye Works at Wellsville.

Woomer, who arranged yesterday's talks, is expected to call both sides together for another session in four or five days.

Representing the union yesterday were James Gatehouse from the union office in Clearfield, Pa., and Edward (Ted) Bauer of Wellsville, clayworkers international representative. Lloyd C. Jenkins, industrial relations director of Porter Co., in Pittsburgh, was present, along with Woomer.

No negotiations are scheduled between the Porter Co. and Local 428, a new union serving the clerks and laboratory and draftsmen employes. However, these workers are not on strike.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A fire which killed four members of a family on the city's South Side Saturday was started by a cigarette, match or a spark, Assistant Fire Chief Elmer Brophy, head of the Fire Prevention Bureau, said today.

Soviet Bomb Test Hit By Socialist Unit

ROME (AP) — The seventh world congress of Socialists today unanimously adopted a resolution protesting as a "monstrous crime" the Soviet Union's explosion of a superbomb.

The congress condemned the resumption of nuclear tests after Soviet promises never to be the first to resume tests, and deplored its refusal to accept American and British offers to conclude immediately a treaty banning tests in the atmosphere.

The action was taken after British Labor Party leader Hugh Gaitskell told the congress "we feel deep disgust and cold anger over (Soviet Premier) Khrushchev's decision to explode the mighty 50-megaton bomb."

The resolution said:

"The Socialist International, in the name of 70 million voters, protests emphatically against the recent explosion in the Soviet Union of a multimegaton nuclear weapon. A 50-megaton explosion represents a monstrous crime against humanity. This explosion will greatly add to the level of radiation and may endanger the health of those living now and of those still unborn. This is in sharp contrast with the solemn declaration of peaceful co-existence."

New York Convicts End Hunger Strike

STORMVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The 1,966 inmates of the maximum-security Green Haven State Prison were eating regularly today, and perhaps even a little more than usual. They have a three-day hunger strike to make up for.

The convicts agreed to end their strike Monday night when the prison warden and the state commissioner of correction promised them their grievances would be looked into.

Hammarskjold Awarded 1961 Nobel Peace Prize

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Nobel Peace Prize for 1961 was awarded Monday to Dag Hammarskjold, who perished on a peace mission in the Congo.

The delayed peace prize for 1960 went to Albert John Luthuli, a Zulu Christian leader in South Africa, for his efforts to alleviate racial discrimination. Luthuli is the first African to receive the prize, worth 250,232 kroner—$48,640. The Nobel Peace Prize Committee of the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) last year postponed its award.

Hammarskjold became the first man to receive the prize posthumously. The U.N. secretary-general was killed Sept. 18 when his plane crashed en route to Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. He was seeking to end the fighting between Katangan and U.N. forces by negotiating with President Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province.

Hammarskjold, Swedish aristocrat who headed the executive branch of the United Nations from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last year after organizing a U.N. force that halted the chaos in the Congo in mid-summer of 1960. However, the closing date for the list of candidates is Feb. 1 of the year of the award.

In view of the early closing date for nominations, Hammarskjold must have already been

ber. He said nothing.

Ironically, the night before, while still at the Western Pennsylvania Correctional Institution in Pittsburgh, the stockily built Schuck made a half-hearted attempt to take his own life by slashing his wrists.

However, the wounds were bandaged and he was sent on his way from Pittsburgh to Bellefonte the next morning for his scheduled date with the executioner.

Schuck, a resident of Baden, was convicted of first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of Vincent Quigley at Economy, Beaver County, on the night of April 27, 1958, also killed in the shooting was Quigley's friend Willian Engle.

The state termed the shooting a case of "mistaken identity," maintaining Schuck in reality was gunning for a woman with whom he had quarreled. A girl in the car with Quigley and Engle was wounded.

Seal-Coating Next On 4th

Working today on North Side streets, the Tri-State Asphalt Co. will begin seal - coating W. 4th St. Wednesday afternoon, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen was told today.

Owen said W. 4th St. will be posted to ban parking tomorrow, but said brief parking, 10-15 minutes, will be permitted tomorrow morning. All-day parking will be banned, he emphasized.

The company expects to seal-coat Anderson Blvd., McKinnon Ave., Jennings Ave., North St., Riverview St., Perry St., Montgomery Ave. and Princeton Ave. and possibly Smithfield St. and Park Blvd. today.

If the company is unable to seal-coat Smithfield St. and Park Blvd., the job will be done tomorrow before the equipment is moved to W. 4th St., the director said.

Officials of the Martins Ferry firm also are due to inspect the job, particularly Pennsylvania Ave. work, pointing out the seal-coating is being pulled loose.

The company blamed the trouble on heavy traffic and a rain which fell just as the work was being completed. It promised to spot-patch the areas where the seal-coat had pulled loose, the director said.

Quick Count Seen On Tax, Mayor Race

The County Election Board said today it expects to have a quick count of results on the East Liverpool mayoral race Nov. 7 and the city's income tax ordinance.

Precinct workers in the city's 34 polling places will make a "flash count" of the results in the race between Mayor Bert H. Goodballet and his Republican opponent, O. Earl Greenawalt, along with the returns on the income tax initiative ordinance, and phone the report to the board's office on W. 6th St., Frank R. O'Hanlon, said.

The presiding judges and clerks then will follow the general instructions issued to workers in the county's remaining 131 precincts, O'Hanlon said.

The workers then will count the ballots on the four proposed state amendments and two countywide tax levies and send the returns to the board's office by messenger.

The final count, also to be sent by messenger, will be on the city office-type ballot from mayor through councilman and the Board of Education ballot, O'Hanlon said.

He emphasized the first report is to be by phone and the other two are to be brought to the board's office by messenger.

Workers in the county's remaining 131 precincts have been instructed to make two counts and phone their results to the collector in their district.

Permit Changes Eyed For District Taverns

Transfer applications are being processed by the Ohio Department of Liquor Control for licenses held by taverns at Toronto and Washingtonville.

The permits for sale of beer and wine for carryout and on-premise consumption at Margaret's Cafe Toronto, have been requested for transfer from the late Margaret Swaykus to Anna Tylasky, executrix of the Swaykus estate.

Permits for beer and wine carryout and on-premise consumption and sale of liquor by the drink at the Town Tavern of S. Market St., Washingtonville, have been requested transferred from Hugh McIntosh to Robert Waggle.

Hearing Is Continued Pending Deposition

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff set the new hearing for Nov. 9 at 9 a. m. and continued Sturgill's $500 bond.

Sturgill was arrested Oct. 14 on Gardendale Ave. by police, who claimed he drove away a few minutes after being warned not to drive the car.

Governor Reiterates 'Hands Off' Decision

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle reiterated Monday he will keep hands off the Democratic gubernatorial primary, thrown wide open by his decision not to seek another term.

The governor commented on published speculation that Highway Safety Director J. Grant Keys was his favorite candidate. DiSalle asserted he was not referring to Keys when the governor said last week he had a favorite candidate who could not be elected.

Wellsville Democrats Open Election Office

Wellsville Democrats have established headquarters at 554 Main St. for the coming election campaign, D. J. Cuti, city chairman, announced.

The city committee will meet there during the campaign.

A meeting of poll workers, precinct committeemen and candidates will be held sometime next week with the date to be announced. A discussion will be held on any new issues on the ballot and a rally prior to the election will be planned.

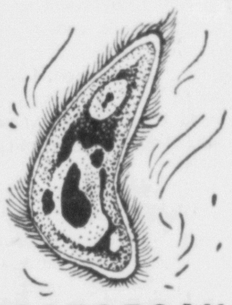
What is a



PROTOZOAN?

The study of the protozoan is a part of our scientists' attempt to solve the mysteries of living matter. Their findings could affect the lives of all of us in the years ahead.

For America's well-being we need all the scientists we can develop. Yet many potential scientists may never go on to higher education because there may not be room for them in college. Many colleges are overcrowded and in 10 years applications will double. We will need more and better college laboratories and thousands more of the highest quality professors.

Gen. Taylor Maps Report To President

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor has decided on the broad outlines of the proposals he will make to President Kennedy for swift action against the Communist threat to South Viet Nam's independence, a U.S. spokesman said today.

Taylor, Kennedy's special military adviser, met with South Viet Nam President Ngo Dinh Diem for two and a half hours in what was possibly their final business session.

The spokesman said the head of Kennedy's save Viet Nam mission and Diem "reviewed in very general terms the proposals to be made to President Kennedy" when Taylor returns to Washington, probably late this week.

Earlier today the Socialist Union group in the National Assembly appealed for American troops to be sent to South Viet Nam. Because the group generally follows the line set by Diem, its statement was considered possibly significant.

The statement could indicate a change in Diem's position since last spring, when he reportedly told Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson he did not want U.S. troops here. Since Johnson's visit the Communist Viet Cong have been mounting heavier and more widespread attacks and the American-trained South Vietnamese army has found it increasingly hard to cope with them.

Occupants Uninjured In Irondale Collision

Both drivers escaped injury in a traffic crash near Irondale Monday afternoon at 5:30, the Wintersville State Highway Patrol reported.

Involved were cars operated by William H. Hoobler, 31, who was heading south and turning left, and Phyllis Beadnell, 25, who was west - bound on County Rd. 55, the patrol said.

Both drivers are from Hammondsville, the patrol said. There was moderate damage to their cars.

Man Given Probation In Morals Complaint

Ronald Jackman, 27, of East Liverpool R. D. 1 was placed on probation Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a charge of exposing himself to two juveniles.

Jackman was ordered not to drink intoxicating beverages, obtain and keep steady employment, be of good behavior, obey all laws and report to court every month by letter.

He was cited in April and the case was continued several times.

bomb "will mostly come to the United States."

However, Urey added in a television interview that the fallout will be "unpleasant but not critical—not at all." He did not elaborate.

Some U.S. officials have said a 50-megaton explosion would cause a large increase of fallout in this country but would not raise radioactivity to the danger point.

James Terrill, assistant chief of the radiological health division of the Public Health Service, said: "We do expect that the levels will be substantially higher than they have been in some portions of the U.S., and that we must be ready to understand the actual exposure of people that occurs so that corrective measures, if necessary, can be taken."

It was an awesome day generally in the records of bombs and missiles:

1. The Soviet Union also fired an underwater nuclear blast of low yield about two hours after the big explosion in the atmosphere. Washington officials said it obviously was a trial of an anti-submarine warfare weapon.

2. The U.S. Navy shot an advanced A2 Polaris from a submarine for the first time. The missile zoomed 1,000 miles down range from 90 feet beneath the Atlantic's surface and about 50 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral, Fla.

3. The Soviet Union claimed it had developed a defense against rockets—but did not specify what type of rockets.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a Texas firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If your symptoms indicate that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. This is all the more remarkable in light of the fact that the great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped. But how can any man or woman be sure what is actually causing their hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Actually, there are 18 scalp disorders that can cause hair loss. No matter which one is the cause of your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. If you still have hair (or at least some fuzz) on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to act.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them information to help them analyze your problem. This information should include how long your hair has been thinning, and whether or not you now have or ever have had any of the following conditions: Do you have dandruff? is it dry or oily? whether your scalp erupts in pimples or other irritations, does your forehead become oily or greasy? does your scalp itch and how often? and any other information you feel might be helpful. All letters will be answered promptly. Send the above information, and your name and address to Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Box 66001, Houston 6, Texas. Adv.

Yes, there's one bright spot in your family budget! . . . While the cost of living has more than doubled since 1936†, the average price per kilowatt hour of electricity in Ohio has gone down.* (In fact, government figures show you pay less than people in 32 other states!)

Martha might say, "Then how come we're paying so much more for electricity than we used to?" That's because you are using 5½ times as much electricity. But the average unit price has actually gone down.

How has electricity remained such a bargain? A big part of the answer is found in Ohio's business climate. Thanks to this historically favorable business climate, the electric companies have been able to raise the millions needed to make improvements. Through such improvements (and through your increased use of electricity) it has been possible to keep the price of electricity down. Thanks to Ohio's business climate, the electric companies have been able to keep electricity the biggest bargain in your budget!

Can A Lame Duck Win?

Although Gov. DiSalle has revealed he will not seek re-election next year, he has not removed all the mystery from the political aspects of his decision.

The mystery is this: Why does he reason that his withdrawal from the race for governor will increase his influence in selling the program he has espoused for Ohio?

Seeking the answer to that question leads to the element of surprise in the governor's announcement.

None of his backers and relatively few of his opponents have questioned the sincerity of his belief in his program. There is no denying that he has worked as hard as any of his predecessors—and harder than many—at formulating his program and trying to put it across to his fellow officeholders and the voters of Ohio.

HE HAS SCORED some successes and some setbacks. It is the prime characteristic of political war that the setbacks often seem to outweigh the successes.

This certainly has been often true of Gov. DiSalle. One of his talents seems to be the ability to embroil himself in controversy. His backers say it is the result of his courage in speaking the truth. His opponents say it is the result of the wrongness of his positions.

Be that as it may, the fact remains that many, perhaps most, political observers felt the sincerity of Gov. DiSalle's belief in what he sees as right for Ohio would lead him inevitably to seek re-election—to stake his personal political future on his ability to persuade Ohioans that he is right.

Instead, he has taken just the opposite position. He says he believes he can persuade more people if he is not the candidate.

There may be logic in the strategy. But politics seldom operates by logic, and the accepted theory is that a "lame duck" official loses rather than gains power to influence voters.

THIS IN ITSELF can become an issue in next year's campaign. Is the governor right in assuming that the voters will pay more attention to him if he is on the way out than they would if he were trying to stay in?

As is the way in politics, only time will provide the answer.

Perhaps the result of next year's campaign will be to show that Mike DiSalle has left a mark on the governor's office which no successor of either party will be able to remove.

And perhaps that is what Mike DiSalle was hoping for when he made his decision not to run again.

One Pant Leg At A Time

The Kennedy administration is said to be starting a counterattack against a mood of national frustration over the cold war.

One of the targets of the counterattack apparently is going to be the attitude of some elements of the press that make it appear Nikita Khrushchev gets into his pants two legs at a time. This would be a good time for all newspapers to analyze their attitude on this proposition in sartorial physics.

News from the Soviet Union and news about the Soviet Union and the Communist Conspiracy is subject to the distortion that affects all news from abroad. In the abscence of first-hand information about things that do not constitute news, readers can get the impression that Russians are 10 feet high.

Meanwhile, they are subject to the impression that they and their own government personalities have shrunk to pygmy proportions, because domestic news stresses so many less-than-life-size details. Americans read and hear about things that have turned sour in their own affairs, but almost never read and hear about things that turn sour in the affairs of other nations, unless they undergo a revolution.

THE RESULTING distortion is not intentional. To a large degree it cannot be helped, though newspapers would do well to be more aware of it. They do have the option of wondering if every speech Khrushchev makes deserves headlines. They do have the obligation to make the same considered judgment about news of developments in Moscow that they make about news of developments in Washington and the capitals of America's allies.

If this is something the Kennedy administration hopes to correct, with no thought of doctoring public information to suit its own taste, it will find no lack of cooperation.

Nikita Khrushchev and all the other ballyhooed supermen of the Communist Conspiracy do get into their pants one leg at a time like men everywhere else—provided they own a pair of pants.

By seeing these people only when they are strutting center stage under the spotlight and by hearing them only when they are reciting their best lines, we build up the illusion that fools us at the movies.

WE BELIEVE the shadow and reject the reality. We are fascinated by the make-believe. And we berate ourselves and our kind for not being as fearsome as the shadows we see against the Moscow backdrop.

Luckily it works two ways. The Khrushchevs and their kind have a distorted view of us, too—but they are more sophisticated about it. They pooh-pooh the United States, capitalism, the friends of capitalism and everything about the West, because they know every last mother's son living under the Communist thumb would give his eye teeth to live first-class for a change.

If the ideological war is going to run on indefinitely—and it has been running on in one form or another throughout the Christian era—all parties concerned will need to be concerned about this problem of distortion.

In the United States, the place to start might well be those pant legs of Nikita Khrushchev. He gets into them one at a time. He gets out of them the same way.

Peripheral Gadget Graveyard

With due respect to our scientists, an ingenious and wildly imaginative collection of try-any-thing-once prioneers, outer space is being peppered with every gadget spawned in their fertile imaginations.

We do not refer specifically to the 350 million copper needles they lobbed into orbit late last week, on the theory that these objects whizzing through space 2,000 feet high in a belt from 5 to 25 miles wide would be useful in radio transmission.

We refer generally to the stuff they are putting into orbit because governments have cornered vast amounts of wealth to expand in pursuit of everything with a scientific label attached to it. Woe to anyone who voices a doubt.

The supposition is that the scientific game is worth all the candles that it costs. Even were it not for the crushing compulsion of scientific rivalry between nations, there would still be a thundering credo that he who questions science is a spoilsport and probably a subversive.

Rumors say that even in the Soviet Union, where dissenters are silenced permanently if they dissent too much, there are Russians who wonder about a government that stays abreast of all possibilities of lobbing hardware into outer space but lags behind possibilities of filling the bellies of its constituents.

Perhaps 350 million needles in orbit around the tattered old earth will help it mend its ways. It may take 350 billion needles, and if it does we'll put 'em up there, along with satellites, rocket casings, radioactive particles, the corpses of animals that never had a chance to discuss their going and, ultimately, the corpses of humans who did talk it over and decided to take a chance, anyway.

Out of so much stuff some good must come, because Science has a reason for everything it does, it says, even if it's only to play out the error portion of the trial-and-error equation. This time it was needles. The next time it may be pins. A year from now it may be crocket hooks.

The Once Over

Delegate (to another delegate): Careful, and remember I warned you about this.

Other Delegate: About what?

First Delegate: Your eyes are drooping and our leader has spoken only an hour and a half.

Other Delegate: My eyes are only half drooping.

His Friend: If they are half drooping now how much droop will you have left at the end of six hours?

HUNGARIAN (to a Romanian): Stop poking me in the ribs!

Romanian: It's my duty as a comrade. You have been applauding in the wrong place. Endurance at these meetings is fundamental.

Hungarian: Thanks. I was dreaming I was at a meeting where the speaker was brief.

Other Mongolian (to Cuban): Snap out of it. You are in peril of excommunication. You are on the edge of snoring.

Cuban: Nonsense. I do not get near the edge of a snore for the first three hours. I have been well conditioned listening to Fidel. With me the edge of snoring is at least two hours away.

Czech Delegate to a Chinese: Kick me in the shins. My foot is asleep.

Czech: I thought you were used to long speeches.

Chinese: We must be brave and strong. It is our duty to the party never to falter in the face of 50-megaton speeches.

Czech: Excuse me for seeming to defect from our party line by showing slight boredom during the first 100,000 words.

Chinese: Forward with the 350-word sentence, split infinitives and the will to endure nonstop oratory in the cause of world peace, let the ear-strain fall where it may! Only imperialists weaken under an all-day speech!

More Products Arrive From Cuba

By Victor Riesel

It's a long way between Moscow and the lobster nets off the rocks of the Cuban coast. But since the shortest distance between these two points is the straight Communist line, I want to hang a story on it which should, it seems to me, shame some of our citizenry and anger the rest. That is if we still have a capacity for indignation. This starts with word I've received from Moscow that one of the most enthusiastic fraternal delegates to the Soviet's 22nd Party Congress is Cuba's Blas Roca.

Victor Riesel

He's second to none in jumping to his feet, stomping and applauding the Russian chairman during the sharpest attacks on the western democracies in general and the United States in particular.

Roca, according to well documented evidence, officially swung the Cuban Communist Party to Fidel Castro three years ago in a move which brought the bearded one out of the mountains and into the Presidential Palace in Havana.

This, Blas Roca did at a secret meeting on the island of Jamaica when he conferred in mid-August 1953 with a small band of Castro agents. Remember, this was some 4½ months before the Fidelistas came to power. Their rendezvous resulted in what is known among Latin experts as the "Jamaica Pact."

THOUGH THIS WAS a meeting between the Castro envoys and the Cuban Communist Party, Castro had long been working with the "Comintern" — the international Communist apparatus.

It is not generally known, but the Soviet subversion tactic is a two-fold operation. There is an underground "rep" (representative) who passes secret orders on from the Comintern center in Prague to the Castro-type of nationalist rebels in any land. And there is the official Communist Party which appears to be holding aloof from such seemingly independent revolutionists.

Fidel Castro long had been taking orders from the Prague underground. These were passed on by the Comintern rep to his brother Raoul, and to "Che" Guevara and Osvaldo Dorticos, now Cuba's president. In August 1958 it became apparent to all insiders that Batista's government would soon blow up like an Algerian cafe.

Word was dispatched from the underground Comintern rep to both Castro and the overt Cuban Communist Party leadership that they were to get together officially. A secret meeting was arranged in nearby Jamaica. Blas Roca headed the Communist group.

THEY MADE their pact with Castro during a long discussion in which they carved U.S. interests with the salivary delight of a gourmet at you know where on Paris' left bank. Then Castro's men went back to the hills and Blas Roca slipped back into Havana with the signal for sabotage.

Now Roca is in Moscow cheering the type of totalitarian station which is garroting Cuba despite its literal theft of a billion dollars worth of U.S. property and about as much in property seized from the Cuban people themselves.

By this time, Roca's party is more powerful than the grimly pathetic Castro. Satellite-ism in Havana can survive only by huge economic transfusions from Russia — which has little to spare—or by moving back again into the U.S. market. If Cuba can get our dollars, it can buy, cash in advance, what it needs. And it needs our kind of "sugar" as much as its own.

But you might think, then, that trade with us is impossible after the executions, the insults, the mass thievery and the use of Cuba as a base for Soviet-softening operations in Latin America.

But you're wrong. It's happening. Cuba is moving back into the U.S. market. Slowly, but enough like the proverbial tortoise to make your hair stand on end.

AT THE MOMENT Cuba is selling $5 million worth of foodstuffs in the United States. This is in addition to its $25 million worth of tobacco — which I'm told is necessary here to keep 6,000 men at work. But the $5 million is just the beginning of Cuba's new trade drive in the United States.

Cuba is readying a small fleet of tramp steamers and goletas (schooners) to begin saturating the United States with such new produce as the can of rock lobsters now resting on my desk. This sea food was "packed by the Conservas Punta De Cartas, S.A., Pinar Del Rio." This is an area in which the greatest number of anti-Communist fighters were rather cruelly destroyed.

Yet Cuba is receiving American dollars. There is no way to stop this. Why? Because there is not, and there has never been a ban on imports of any kind in any amount from this Soviet satellite! Cuba is being permitted to begin rebuilding its "business-as-usual" in the United States.

Doesn't anybody care?

Flash-In-The Pan?

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — The Kennedy administration has now talked very rough to Russia but whether this is just a flash-in-the-pan or the beginning of a new policy of toughness remains to be seen.

For months Premier Khrushchev, while demanding the Allies back up on Berlin, has waved his nuclear weapons and cut loose with a whole series of tests. He has been the tough one.

President Kennedy, by comparison, has been mild. In the past couple of months some Republican critics have complained he wasn't firm enough, even suggesting he was an appeaser. This, reportedly, got under the President's skin.

Last week Khrushchev topped things off by announcing Russia soon would explode a 50-megaton nuclear bomb which would dwarf previous blasts. Monday Russia exploded two nuclear devices — one of them described by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission as possibly as high as 50 megatons but more likely about 30 megatons.

American officials — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, for instance —professed to see no practical reason for such an explosion although one simple explanation seems to be reasonable enough: Khrushchev is doing this as a terror tactic.

Saturday night, as if replying to this tactic, Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense, made the toughest speech delivered by any Pentagon official since Kennedy took office.

The speech was first approved by Rusk and the White House. The administration took pains beforehand to let newsmen know the speech had this approval to show Gilpatric was talking for the administration.

Gilpatric not only said the United States is superior to Russia in nuclear weapons — he went into some detail to explain why—but warned the Soviets that if they start a nuclear war, even with a sneak attack, this country's nuclear resources would still be powerful enough to wipe them out.

This kind of talk would have had a much greater impact here and abroad if someone higher up the official ladder in the administration—like Kennedy, Rusk or Defense Secretary Robert McNamara—had delivered it.

But, even though it came from a lesser official like Gilpatric, the fact that the administration let it be known he had full approval got the point across.

This speech serves to fry several kinds of fish:

1. Just in case Khrushchev has any doubts about American power—and officials here don't think he does—the Gilpatric speech would set him straight.

2. Khrushchev has been making propaganda hay—in trying to impress the world with Russia's power—and the Gilpatric speech may take some of the edge off it.

3. It is also a nudge to American allies, particularly in Europe, if they suspected American weakness because Kennedy didn't try to match Khrushchev in waving nuclear weapons.

4. It may take some of the steam out of the complaint by some Republicans that Kennedy hasn't been tough enough.

The fact that Kennedy and Rusk let a lower-echelon man like Gilpatric do the talking in this case — instead of one of them — can still be interpreted as something less than an all-out willingness by the administration to be tough.

Patent System

When the United States Patent Office was set up in 1836, the steam locomotive's lonely whistle was just beginning to be heard across the land.

This year, on its 125th anniversary, satellites circle the earth and scientists test vehicles which they hope will take man to the moon.

Between the eras of rail and space, the American patent system has given order and direction to the nation's inventive talents. By adding "the fuel of interest to the fire of genius" (Lincoln), it has sparked countless industries and helped build an unparalleled standard of living.

To Tell The Truth

More 'Nigerias' Are Needed

None of the information in this article comes from any postcard written by a Nigerian student visiting the United States. Most of it comes from the pen of James B. Conant, formerly president of Harvard University and one of America's leading educators. It is taken from his new book "Slums And Suburbs," which was written after a first-hand study of schools in the suburbs of well-to-do people and in the slums of the poor in large cities of America.

David Lawrence

Dr. Conant says the building up of "a mass of unemployed and frustrated Negro youth in congested areas" in American cities has in it potentialities for trouble and, indeed, possibilities of disaster.

"In some there are very bad gangs with gang warfare among the boys. There are also vicious fights outside of school between Negro girls. The condition in one such neighborhood was summed up to one of my staff by a principal of a junior high school who said even he was shocked by the answers to a questionnaire to the girls which asked what was their biggest problem. The majority replied to the effect that their biggest problem was getting from the street into their apartment without being molested in the hallway of the tenement. . . .

"I have walked through school corridors in slum areas and looking in the classrooms, have seen children asleep with their heads on their hands. Is this situation the result of poor teachers without either disciplinary control or teaching ability? No, the children asleep at their desks have been up all night with no place to sleep or else have been subject to incredibly violent family fights and horrors through the night.

"Checking into one case, a principal told one of my staff that after climbing six flights of a tenement he found the boy's home — one filthy room with a bed, a light bulb, and a sink. In the room lived the boy's mother and her four children. I might add that it is not unusual for teachers in these schools to take home with them children with no place to go at night."

DR. CONANT tries to deal realistically with the whole question of schools in the slums and the efforts recently made to move Negro children to white schools.

There isn't the slightest trace of bias or prejudice on the race question in Dr. Conant's background. He believes wholeheartedly in the Supreme Court decision of 1954 on desegregation of the public schools. But he questions some of the inferences drawn from the Supreme Court's ruling that "separate educational facilities are inherently unequal." He particularly doubts the wisdom of proposals for moving Negro children into all-white schools so as to have mixed schools. He writes:

"Taken out of context, the conclusion might be drawn that the justices declared separate educational facilities, for whatever reason provided, are morally wrong and if supported by tax funds are illegal.

"Yet on reading carefully the whole opinion, I think the key sentence is the question defined by the court: 'Does segregation of children in public schools solely on the basis of race, even though physical facilities and other "tangible" factors may be equal, deprive the children of the minority group of equal educational opportunities: We believe that it does.'

"I have italicized the word 'solely,' as I presume to think it is the essential word. The justices appear to have expressed no view as to whether the pupils in a completely Negro school are deprived of equal educational opportunity if they are not assigned solely because of their race. In short, if one group of children is separated from another group because of the neighborhood in which they live, the fact of this separation is, of and by itself, no evidence of an inequality in education. Whether in fact the facilities and instruction are equal in a 100 per cent white school, a mixed school, and a 100 per cent Negro school in a large city is to be determined by examining the schools, not by appeal to phrases such as 'de facto segregation,' with the implication that it is to be condemned by all right-thinking people who condemn 'de jure segregation.'

"In some cities political leaders have attempted to put pressure on the school authorities to have Negro children attend essentially white schools. In my judgment, the cities in which the authorities have yielded to this pressure are on the wrong track. Those which have not done so, like Chicago, are more likely to make progress in improving Negro education."

IN HIS BOOK Dr. Conant tackles the whole subject on the basis of improving education. While his description of conditions in the slum areas of the United States is discouraging, the problem will not be solved by ignoring their existence.

That's why it is surprising to find resentment expressed by the prime minister of Nigeria because an American visitor describes the facts of life in that country. The sooner the new African republics learn something about democracy and a free press — which doesn't hesitate to print all the facts no matter how unfavorable — the quicker will solutions be found for some of the vexing problems that arise as a consequence of poverty.

Margery Michelmore of the Peace Corps may turn out to be more of a heroine than a villainess because of a postcard which inadvertently publicized to the whole world the plight of the underdeveloped countries.

Actually, what is needed is more frequent and more vivid "postcards" from Africa so as to awaken people, not just in America but throughout the world, to the human needs of their unfortunate brethren.

Through The Years

Mrs. Daniel M. Cronin installed the new officers of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Received as new members of the Art Circle Club were Mrs. Harley Conley and Miss Nellie Clark.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — John Lancaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Lancaster of Newell, was chairman of the art committee for the annual Harvest ball at Duquesne University.

Twenty new members were received into the Dramatic Club of Wellsville High School, known as the "Scitamard."

Miss Ruby Meade of Wellsville was appointed typist-accountant in the office of county treasurer Vincent C. Judge.

A telephone exchange has recently been installed in Carmacks, Yukon Territory, the frontier town named for George Carmack, whose gold discovery sparked the Yukon gold rush.

Stone Age

Though Europeans emerged from the Old Stone Age about 10,000 years ago, many aborigines are still in it. Their simple hunting and food-gathering economy suggests the hardships that Europeans knew thousands of years ago.

The Arunta, or Aranda, tribesmen inhabit the very center of the world's smallest continent. Anthropologist Edward Weyer calls them "as perfect an example of a Stone Age people as we have." Physically they may be closer than any other living people to Neanderthal man, a resident of Europe 50,000 years ago.

The Arunta have lithe, well-proportioned bodies, chocolate-brown complexions, and flowing beards. They wear no clothing and build no shelters. A family's entire possessions may weigh no more than 30 pounds.

The sharpest teeth of any animal are generally attributed to the shark. Sharks vary in size from the dogfishes, about three feet long, to the basking shark, 35 to 40 feet long.

Won't Face Real Problems

Congolese Leaders Fail To Awaken To Reality

(Editors' Note—The lives of many men, along with some of your tax dollars, have gone into the effort to end the chaos that has throttled the Congo since it won independence 16 months ago. What are the results? What is the outlook? Here is the first of three articles giving a penetrating look at the Congo today. The writer won a 1961 Pulitzer Prize for his dispatches on African affairs.)

By LYNN HEINZERLING

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Sixteen months of bloodshed, political chaos and near bankruptcy—not to mention millions of dollars — have failed to awaken the Congo to reality.

The backyard government set up by Antoine Gizenga in Stanleyville with the help of Communist governments collapsed and Gizenga joined the Adoula government as vice premier. He contributed little and has gone back to Stanleyville. Nobody knows when or whether he will return.

The United Nations has reached a cease-fire agreement in the secessionist province of Katanga, whose rich copper deposits are the nation's greatest asset. It is desperately trying to bring President Moise Tshombe of Katanga into negotiations with Adoula.

The Congolese Parliament considers its most important order of business is to arrange to chop up the jungle land into still more provinces with diverse tribal urges. There are not enough skilled Congolese to run the central government and administer the present six provinces properly.

The new nation still does not have its own constitution, but is operating under a fundamental law worked out with the former Belgian colonial masters. Parliament is amending this law so that the six provinces laid out arbitrarily by the Belgians can be cut up to accommodate and perpetuate tribal groupings.

It is a labor based on the ancient hates of the Congolese that will further impede the Congo's entrance into the world of the 20th century.

The shadow of the first prime minister, Patrice Lumumba, still lies across the Congo. The tall, flamboyant nationalist leader was slain in Katanga more than eight months ago while being held by Tshombe's government.

Western diplomats, who have watched the whole incredible story unfold in the Congo, believe the Adoula government is the best the country can achieve in the circumstances. Some consider Adoula the most impressive man in the Congo.

Adoula must keep the Congo calm and solve the Katanga problem to survive. The central government cannot hope to operate this huge country of 900,000 square miles without a share of Katanga's rich copper profits.

United Nations officials are confident. They expect that preliminary contacts between Katangan emissaries and the central government will be followed by a meeting between Adoula and Tshombe.

Despite his statements, Tshombe himself is known to feel that the days of his private state are numbered. Not a single nation has recognized the proclaimed independence of Katanga.

The central government, under great pressure from leftists and Lumumbists, still thinks grandiosely of sending Mobutu's troops to the Katanga border and seizing the recalcitrant province. Mobutu is known to regard such an adventure more soberly.

It was Mobutu, with the backing of President Joseph Kasavubu who expelled Russians, Czechs and Poles from the country last year after they openly supplied war materials to maintain Lumumba in power.

Mobutu and members of the central government know that a defeat in Katanga or even a long stalemate could mean the end of the Adoula government. The time would then be ripe for a takeover by the extremist Lumumbists.

There are bright spots. The Communist threat is recognized and it is still less real than in the days of Lumumba's gaudy reign.

President Kasavubu, although no political genius, is still a moderate and stabilizing force with a solid backing. The Adoula government has kept in office such friends of the West as Vice Premier Jason Sendwe, Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko and Information Minister Joseph Ileo. There are other moderate, if less sophisticated, members of the Cabinet.

"1" DIAL "1" for Direct Distance Dialing

Beginning Sunday, October 29

In East Liverpool—beginning next Sunday—whenever you direct dial a long distance call, please dial the numeral "1" first, before dialing the out-of-town number.

Here's how it works: To dial a long distance call within northeastern Ohio—Cleveland, for example—first dial "1" and then dial the telephone number.

To dial a call to a place outside northeastern Ohio—Columbus, for example—first dial "1", then 614 (Area Code for Columbus) and then the telephone number.

This method of placing direct distance calls will soon be introduced through the nation. The purpose is to have a simple, uniform way of getting connected to the Direct Distance Dialing network, so that eventually anyone, anywhere, will be able to dial long distance calls the same way.

So, please remember to dial the numeral "1" first on all direct dialed long distance calls. It's a step toward the future.

Jury Hears $1,500 Suit

Clyde Donald Chaney asks payment for damages to his property allegedly caused by an auto and tractor - trailer rig that collided at the bottom of the Route 30 hill May 27, 1959.

The trial opened Monday and is being heard by a panel of six women and six men serving as petit jurors for the fall term of court. Judge Ralph Pryor is presiding.

The defendant is Leo Kahle Eberhart of Fairview St., Chester.

Eberhart's 1959 model auto, moving through the intersection, and a tractor - trailer rig loaded with steel coils, collided at the foot of the winding hill. Earl Moore of Columbus was the driver of the rig.

The vehicles bounced into an empty lot near Chaney's service station after the collision, knocking over a sign and damaging the blacktopping of the lot, the plaintiff contends. The car was shoved into a brick wall.

Eberhart, 52, his wife and Mrs. Grace Wedgewood of Louisiana Ave., who was riding in the rear seat, all were injured.

In testifying yesterday, Chaney produced 13 checks and cash receipts he said were used in payment for labor and materials to re-surface the lot.

A brick retaining wall also was damaged in the mishap, according to yesterday's testimony. Clyde Dudley Chaney, father of the service station operator, also was on the stand.

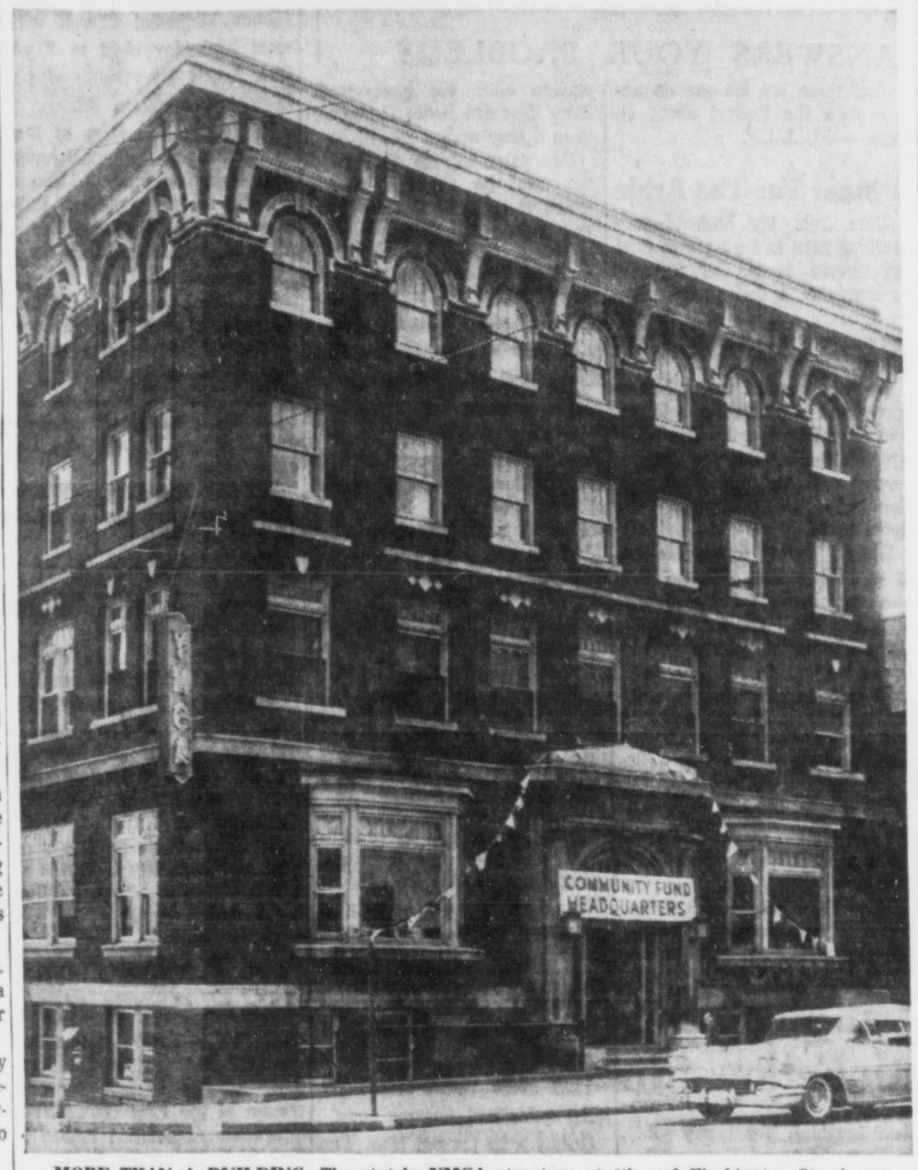
Shares In Fund Proceeds

YMCA Seen Community Center



MORE THAN A BUILDING. The stately YMCA structure at 4th and Washington Sts. is more than a building—it has been called a community center and the busiest in a 20-mile radius. It is one of the participating agencies in the Community Fund and serves as headquarters for the current fund campaign for $77,600 for the six groups sharing in the proceeds.

The YMCA is more than a place where small boys can play and learn to swim — it has become a community center, with facilities used by residents of a 20-mile radius.

This article, fourth in a series on Community Fund agencies, points out that aside from the Y's regular 1,600 members, it is used by some 3,200 other Tri-State residents.

THE GREATEST usage of Y facilities is, of course, by residents of East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester, Newell and Midland. However, some 12 other neighboring communities — Lisbon, West Point, Leetonia, Rogers, East Palestine, Negley, Columbiana, New Cumberland, Congo, Hookstown, Georgetown and Smiths Ferry — also use it for many purposes.

This Christian youth center has already served three generations of Tri-State citizens every day of the year. Swimming pool and gymnasium are closed each Sunday and holiday, but the Y doors are open to all races and creeds every other day.

Athletic facilities include an all-purpose gymnasium, with basketball court, running track, weight-room with workout equipment and handball court. The swimming pool is heated for year-round use. There are 45 rooms available for rental to men and young men. Through the year, at least 50 organizations use Y clubrooms for meetings with no rental fee charged — although a few make periodic donations to the Y or Community Fund.

Other non-member usage of the Y would include some 32 volleyball teams, of about 360 girls, businessmen, business women and adult church men, who participate in five tournaments conducted annually under Y sponsorship.

Some 450 men and boys take part in basketball tourneys held co-operatively with Church and Y Leagues . . . The Y also co-operates with the church leagues in a softball program in which some 300 young men play each year.

Both members and non-members are entered in the Y's "learn-to-swim" classes, held for all ages, both men and women, boys and girls.

FROM TIME to time, special events are held at the Y. These might include the annual Toy Train derby with some 35 contestants which draws up to 600 spectators.

Practically everyone can join, there are no barriers as to race or religion.

When parents cannot afford the necessary fee, many adults generously provide "sponsored" memberships for youngsters who have been recommended by church or other agency leaders.

The development of Pine Ridge Camp on the West Branch of Beaver Creek is an accomplishment of which the 24 volunteer members of the YMCA Board, are very proud.

This beautiful camp site gave more than 500 area boys and girls a wonderful week of healthy outdoor life this past summer, at the modest fee of only $16 per youngster.

RECENT IMPROVEMENTS at the camp, including a new lodge, seven new cabins, a lake for fishing, the new roadway and entrance, are being paid for with income from the Vodrey-Y Endowment Fund, not from donations to or from the Community Fund.

The Y has an estimated budget of more than $67,000 for next year. All but about 2 per cent of this total will be spent right in this area to benefit those who live and work in this Tri-State region.

Some support for the National YMCA and its World Service Program is required of the local Y and this is the approximate 2 per cent mentioned previously. About half of the required income for the year will come from room rentals, memberships and miscellaneous activities; the other half, or about $33,400, must come through the Community Fund.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers? I am a member of the "modern institution called 'Sitters.'" But I certainly do not consider myself an "irresponsible, moronic, hollow-headed, impudent, vacuum cleaner with teeth."

I know exactly the type of woman who would complain. She is the one who greets the sitter at the door and tells her to "feed the kids something and put them in bed when they look tired." When she is half out the door she remembers that "Susie is next door and Debbie is out in the neighborhood some place."

When you go to the kitchen you find the sink filled with dirty dishes. You have to wash plates to give the children their supper. Why she worries about a sitter eating her out of house and home, I wouldn't know, because there's nothing much in her refrigerator.

She forgets to leave a calling number and if you needed her in an emergency it would be just too bad.

She promises to be home by midnight, but something always happens to detain her until 2:30—or later. When she goes to pay you she discovers she has nothing smaller than a $20 bill so she owes you till next time.

And these are the women who complain the loudest about sitters. — FULL UP.

Dinner For The Bride

Dear Ann: My husband is a working man and we are in modest circumstances. Our daughter is marrying a fine young fellow in January and we want to give her as pretty a wedding as we can afford.

We have planned a church ceremony and a dinner for relatives and close friends only. The bridegroom's mother sent her list yesterday and we almost fainted. She had 220. We kept our list down to 45.

When I phoned to express surprise at the size of her family she explained that her family is rather small and that most of the people on the list are her husband's customers.

We hate to have trouble at the outset, but we can't afford dinner for a crowd like this. What shall we do? — DISTRESSED.

Dear Distressed: You are paying for the dinner and it is your prerogative to decide how far you want to go.

Since these people wish to use the wedding as a business booster, suggest they give a reception after the honeymoon. They then can invite the whole town if they wish.

For now, explain that their list must be pared to 55 — which gives them 10 more than you have.

Attached To Ring

Dear Ann: Will you please print your opinion of a woman who is past 40 years of age and still is wearing her high school class ring? She wears her wedding band and diamond ring on one hand and the class ring on the other.

Dear One: It doesn't bother me a bit. Why are YOU so exercised?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Costello, assistant county coroner, took the stand and two police officers, Howard Bosworth and Sam Hayes, were to testify later for the state.

With Harpo, Silence Is Still Golden

This is Marie Torre's last newspaper column. She announced Monday that she plans to fullfill assignments in other fields in the future.

In this television era of much chatter, much sophistry and the light effusions of heedless men, it is reassuring to find at least one showman upholding the silence-is-golden rule.

Marie Torre

Though the advent of a "talking" Harpo Marx easily would rank with "Garbo speaks!" the mute member of the Marx Brothers has declined probably his 687,000th invitation to be heard on a coming NBC special titled "The Wonderful World of Toys" (Nov. 12).

He presents an incontestable argument. Ever since economy-minded TV producers discovered that talk really IS cheap, the industry, Marx says, has turned comedians into conversationalists, actors into orators, singers into magpies and authors into windbags.

"EVERYBODY ELSE in TV talks," Marx notes. "Why should I start now, after all these years of silence?'

But he didn't fully convince the show producers. Since he won't indulge in public speaking, they've engaged comedienne Carol Burnett to be his "voice."

"Well, they call her my 'voice,' but she won't be really," clarified Marx, who is totally unrecognizable as the frenetic clown when the curly wig is off.

"Actually Carol will function as a sort of narrator. Which is okay, if that's what they think they need. I myself see no point in breaking the sound barrier.

"What would it mean? So the people would hear me say hello and goodbye. All these years I've built an illusion. Why spoil it? Besides, nobody would believe his ears if I talked.

"WHY, I'LL BET you that the people who read this interview won't believe I actually spoke to you. Here at the hotel this morning I had to call the operator and when I told her who I was, she said, 'You're not! It can't be! You're kidding!' "

Ironically, it was the sound of a "voice" that prompted the hotel detective to knock on Marx' door the other afternoon. Marx had in his suite some of the unusual toys that will be seen on the coming show, and he was fasincated by a large-size talking doll which says, "I love you, give me a kiss."

"Then there was this knock on the door and the hotel detective says to me, 'Keep the girl's voice down.' Did I tell him it was only a doll? No, why let him think it wasn't a girl?"

"Every time I finish a TV performance, I say that's it!—my swan song! Then somebody comes along with a script I like and I'm in business again."

His only other professional activity is charity appearances with symphony orchestras, the same thing Jack Benny does. He's been doing these for almost 12 years because of a belief that "all symphonies are broke." He does not accept payment for these, largely because he doesn't need it.

Whether or not they work, the Marx brothers are today financially solvent, a condition attributed to astute business dealings during their success in motion pictures.

"CHICO MADE it possible for all of us to be comfortable long after the movies were made," said Harpo.

"Groucho likes to work regularly, but I like the easy life, I lead the perfect existence, I would say. I usually awaken about 6:30 every morning, and after breakfast I practice on the harp for two hours. Then I play a little golf, have lunch, and then paint for three hours.

"In the evenings, after dinner, I snooze a little and get up just in time to see the TV shows I like.

"Do I mind the interruption when a TV show comes along? Not this time. I'd be thinking too much about Chico if I weren't busy with a show."

WHAT'S THE FUTURE of direct telecasting to world receivers via space satellites? Vice President Johnson's prediction is that the first development will be direct FM broadcasts to home receivers to be followed by direct TV telecasts. . . .

In the opinion of LeRoy Collins, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, President Kennedy is not "unfriendly" to broadcasting. Collins said he recently was taken on a tour of the White House. "There by his four-poster bed," Collins said, "was a television set. That's an endorsement of braodcasting, I'd say." . . .

If Fred Astaire's "Premiere" maintains the high standards established by the first two shows, the series ought to prove once and for all that it's possible to do quality drama on a weekly basis.

Midland United Fund Drive Reaches 81 Per Cent Of Goal

Though lagging in some phases, the Midland Area United Fund campaign committee reported Monday evening that 81.8 per cent, or $37,212.91 of its goal of $45,471, has been achieved.

The additional 30 per cent over last week's reported 51 per cent came mostly from pledges of Crucible Steel Co. employes.

The area door-to-door canvass, scheduled Wednesday, has been postponed to Friday or Monday, depending upon completion of mill solicitation, Robert C. Kelker, general campaign chairman, said.

Volunteer workers in Ohioville and Fairview still are needed and may contact Kelker at the Crucible's Midland Works, where he is superintendent of the electrical department.

He reminded all who work in Midland, but live elsewhere, that the money they pledge will be sent to the charity groups of their areas.

All are asked to give a "fair share", or one half to one hour's pay per month for 12 months. Under the payroll deducation plan, employes may give by installments.

A film, "The Torch," was screened during the meeting of divisional chairmen and workers at Lincoln High School. It explained that only one campaign is being held as people had asked.

Carroll Miller of Beaver, a member of the Beaver Valley Toastmasters Club, gave a brief talk on the United Fund, pointing out that one out of four — or 50,000 Beaver Countians — will be aided by the United Fund during 1962.

He said the contributor has the satisfaction of knowing that 92 cents of each dollar given goes for the work intended, a good record, and the community gains by providing care for the handicapped, the aged, widows and children and wholesome recreation and civic training for youngsters.

The 41 health, welfare and character building agencies sharing include the Heart Association, Retarded Children's Chapter, Cancer Society, Mental Health Society, four hospitals, the Red Cross, Children's Home, Home for the Aged, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, all of Beaver County, the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation and the Midland Hot Stove League.

Mayor Urges City Vote On Amendment

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet today urged East Liverpool residents to approve the statewide "continuity of government" amendment at the Nov. 7 general election.

The non - partisan proposed Amendment 2, one of four state issues on the ballot, will authorize legislation to establish automatic line of succession for public officials, provide protection for essential records, establish control centers and alternate sites for government emergency operations, and insure the protection and maximum use of government personnel, resources and equipment, the mayor pointed out.

"Although this area might not be a target in event of war, we must plan for the many emergencies that could occur if the nation is attacked, and must prepare now to assure the continued functioning of effective civil government," Mayor Goodballet said.

Protective Diet Keeps Reducer Happy

Ida Jean Kain

"Whoever says a person on a diet is bad - tempered and hard to get along with has never weighed 195 pounds! So many people remark on my improved looks since I've reduced. Then they add how sorry they feel for my husband and children for what they must be going through while I'm dieting.

"Perhaps my disposition wasn't too good for the first couple of weeks while I was trying to get used to eating less — but it couldn't have been much worse than before I started dieting. I used to feel miserable and so sorry for myself because I was fat. The day I weighed in and found I had lost 5 pounds I whooped for joy and I got happier and happier as the excess pounds melted away.

"ONE THING that discouraged me before I started dieting was the thought that I would be hungry for all those months it took to get the fat off. That isn't true, either.

"I haven't felt hungry since those first two weeks. In seven months I have lost 46 pounds. While I still have 19 more pounds to lose I'm not trying to lose them in a hurry. It took me 10 years to gain all this excess. I intend to keep my weight right and I know that with my new eating habits I can. Thank you for all the help and encouragement through your column."

Three rousing cheers for that exultant homemaker. All those interested, tune in.

It's easy to rationalize that your disposition is sweeter when you are not trying to diet. You may honestly believe you couldn't possibly do all you have to do and diet too.

Stretch your mind with a new idea. If excess fat is making you miserable, you can be wonderfully happy while dieting to slim down. It takes energy to carry excess fat. By reducing on a protective diet you'll have more energy, not less.

Plan family meals around the protective foods: Lean meat, fish or fowl; skim milk, buttermilk or whole milk; cheese or cottage cheese; eggs, vegetables, fruits, whole grain cereal and bread and spread.

DIETERS should cut fats sharply, and keep food portions moderate.

The homemaker in today's story made the wise decision to reduce at a modest rate of 1¼ pounds a week. On 1,200 to 1,500 calories a day, depending on your activity, you can loose a pound a week, enjoy abundant fare, reduce without a wrinkle and keep your disposition sweet. Try it.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for new leaflet, "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Deaf To Mother's Reasoning

Most young mothers have been brainwashed into believing that they should be able to control the young tot by reasoning and persuading. But they are puzzled to find it doesn't work. A Michigan mother writes about her tot, four: "You can talk to this child for hours and hours explaining why he must not do a certain thing or things, yet he will go right on and do them. Sometimes he does things he knows he will be punished for. "I have tried your chair - sitting idea, but he cries all the time he's in the chair and makes a nervous wreck of me.

"HE DOESN'T seem to be jealous of his three - month - old brother, but will deliberately hurt him. He was keeping dry all night before the baby came but now he's started wetting again.

"He gets plenty of love and affection, more now, I think than before the baby came."

My reply in part:

Your main trouble is that you waste so much time with words trying to keep him from doing what he already knows he shouldn't. Decide, you and Dad, on the few things he must not do, that you can check.

When he does such a thing, don't try to explain or persuade. Turn him over your knee and smack him. Be sure it hurts.

To be effective, the punishment must be immediate and without exception, not after you have shouted. No several times.

IF HE WILL stay in the chair for the time you state, use it for punishment instead. Make it for exactly 20 minutes. Should he get down too soon, spank him soundly.

It's silly of you to let his crying bother you. Let him cry all he likes while in the chair. When he learns his crying can't change the clock or change you, he will decide, by and by, not to cry but to serve his sentence stoically.

Because your management of him is ineffective, you and he feel annoyed at each other most of the time and can't enjoy mutual affection.

Naturally he feels he is not loved as much as the baby is. Protect the baby from him, of course, but hardly by punishing him.

I HOPE DAD spends a lot of time with this boy — reading to him, making things with him, explaining things to him, answering his questions and having all sorts of fun with him.

Be generous with deserving praise.

When he feels more loved and secure, his bed - wetting will almost surely stop.

My bulletins, "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," "Psychology Applied to Bed-Wetting" and "Love and Restraint," may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remedy wooden drawer knobs that have a tendency to work loose on their screws?

A. Try sanding the back surface of the knob to a slight bevel. In this way, the knob twists slightly on the threaded bolt when it is tightened, gripping the drawer front securely.

Q. How can I get more "mileage" from my sandpaper?

A. You'll accomplish this if you'll brush it with a stiff, dry scrubbing brush when the surface of the paper becomes clogged with powdered wood or paint. After a good brushing, you'll find the sandpaper will "cut" again.

Q. How can I remove the indelible ink stains of a ballpoint pen from materials?

Registration Ordered For Radiation Sources

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Public Health Council has adopted regulations calling for registration of all sources of radiation in Ohio. The council is the regulatory body of the Ohio Department of Health.

The regulations cover both X-ray and nuclear radiation as used in offices of physicians, dentists and other professions and in industry. They become effective Jan. 1, 1962.

Authority of the Health Department to adopt regulations for radiation protection was given by the 103rd General Assembly in 1959.

Official Made Mistake . . .

Beaver Local followers have reason to complain about their team s, 14-8, loss Saturday night to Carrollton, but it is water over the dam now and nothing can be done about it.

One of the three officials who worked the game made a big mistake by yelling "free ball". The call confused Beaver Local's Francis Possage and led to a Carrollton touchdown and eventual victory.

William "Butch" Vinovich, one of the officials who worked Saturday's game, said the official in question shouldn't have said anything. According to Possage and a Carrollton player, the official did shout "free ball."

In Ohio, a ball rolling into the end zone on a punt is playable. If the ball rolls dead in the end zone it is an automatic touchback and the ball is brought out to the 20-yard line. That's what should have happened Saturday night.

Pennsylvania and West Virginia rules read that a ball going into the end zone is an automatic touchback and cannot be played. The ball is then brought out to the 20-yard line.

Possage knew what to do, because he started to walk away from the ball, but when the official yelled he feared that by declaring a "free ball" Carrollton could fall on the pigskin for a touchdown.

The term the official should have used was "live ball" or "ball is in play", but as pointed out before he would have been wiser not to have said anything. The term "free ball" was not the right one to use in this case.

It knocks Beaver Local out of a chance for an undefeated season and places a burden on the coaching staff to get the team up for two tough contests in a row. The Beavers meet West Branch, a powerhouse from up around Salem, this Saturday and next week face arch rival Wellsville.

WILLIAM "Bill" Dunn, an all-County selection while performing for the Beaver Local High School football squad, has been promoted to Storekeeper Petty Officer 3C. Bill is serving with the Navy at San Juan, Puerto Rico, and is a member of the base basketball team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn of Lisbon R. D 3.

Zelch Recovering . . .

IDLED a couple of weeks because of an ankle injury, East Liverpool's Dave Zelch will resume practice this week with the University of Miami football squad.

Zelch, a sophomore, has stamped himself as a brilliant deep defender against long passes and his loss, was felt as Miami dropped two successive games to Navy and Colorado.

JIM POTTS, the ex-Potter, got in on the scoring act in Bowling Green's 21-6 victory over Kent State Saturday when he flipped a 55-yard TD pass. The falcons remain undefeated and are attempting to sweep to a Mid-American Conference title.

Little Potters League Busy . . .

THE LITTLE Potters League installed two new baskets at the Pleasant Heights school giving that area a paved basketball court.

The work could never have been completed so soon without the help of Bob Freed who donated his time and equipment and did all the welding for the project.

The league now has installed a large blacktop court in Thompson Park, one basket at Garfield school and the two new buckets on the Heights.

Next on the agenda for the Little Potters is to install another basket at Garfield giving that area a full court and to place a basket at the Glenmoor school.

THE local Jaycees are laying plans to hold a state track and field meet in East Liverpool next year in connection with Operation Fitness—U. S. A.

The events are open to youths age 9 through 18. Last year's state finals were held at Hiram College and several city athletes participated.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

The former Potter halfback is writing a 1,000-word theme on Otto Graham, one-time star quarterback for the Cleveland Browns, for a course in basic writing. He also prepared a paper on "Pre-Game Tension."

Mackall saw four minutes of action against Illinois, but wasn't called on for duty in the Minnesota or Ohio State games.

SINCE THE New Philadelphia Quakers lost to East Liverpool, they have caught fire, winning three straight games to bring their record to the .500 mark for the season.

The latest win was a 14-6 verdict over Lou Venditti's Lincoln Lions. Lou's team is now 4-2 for the season after losing two straight.

MASSILLON was behind for the first time in the 1961 season Friday when Mansfield's all - Ohio candidate Henry Weaver ran back the opening kickoff 87 yards to give his team a 6-0 lead.

It didn't take long however for Massillon to claw back. The final score showed Ohio's No. 1 team with a 34-6 edge.

NILES IS undefeated and from what we saw in the opening game with East Liverpool has a fine football team. One question though: Although Niles has won by lopsided scores, who have they played outside of Steubenville Central?

There are several Pennsylvania schools on the schedule. Niles' latest victory was a 66-8 victory over Akron Kenmore. According to several coaches from Akron Central, with whom we talked Friday night, Kenmore is a soft touch around the Akron area.

Niles could answer our question as to whether it is a great team or not when Alliance invades that city Nov. 10.

ANYONE interested in forming a City Basketball League this season please contact yours truly at the Review. The Little Potters League will not operate the loop this season but is attempting to set it up.

Hoppel Maintains Scoring Lead

"Unstoppable" Carl Hoppel maintained his lead in the district scoring race over the weekend, getting a touchdown and a two-points conversion in Beaver Local's 14-8 upset loss to Carrollton.

It marked the seventh straight game of the campaign that the 140-pound senior fullback has crossed an opponent's goal line at least once.

With 10 touchdowns and a bundle of conversions to his credit, Hoppel kept his slim lead intact in the scoring race over Santon Local's Stan Wickham. Hoppel has 73 points.

Wickham, 140 - pound halfback, got two touchdowns and two one-point conversions to boost his season total to 68 while the Irons were romping over Newell, 46-0. He's managed to score in every game but one for the Irons.

The remainder of the field trails far behind the two pint-sized leaders who are performing for the district's top-record schools.

Midland's Earl Vaughn, a quarterback, is third in line with 54 points Following are Lisbon's Gary Peruchetti, Larry Marks of United, and Francis Possage of Beaver Local.

This week's action starts a day earlier than usual because of a teacher's meeting. Set for Thursday night games are Wellsville High and Stanton Local.

Wellsville (3-4) goes against Jefferson Union (4-3), a team that is nearly always "up", for a battle with the Tigers. The game at Nicholson Stadium will highlight Wellsville's homecoming.

Top-ranked Stanton Local (6-1) meets Brilliant (3-3-1) at Irondale, with the kickoff set for 7:30 p. m.

This Week's Card Gets Underway Thursday

Jefferson Union fell to Follansbee in its last game, 20-6, while Wellsville was losing to Salem, 16-8. However, Coach Ken Woods' Tigers turned in perhaps their best performance of the year.

Brilliant tied weak Smithfield in a scoreless duel last week. Stanton Local, under new coach Don McBride, rolled to a 46-0 victory over Newell.

The district's "surprise" squad of the year — New Cumberland — draws a bead on its sixth straight victory Friday night in entertaining Mt. Pleasant.

Leading Coach John Kuzio's Blue Raiders into a homecoming game at New Cumberland will be fullback Allen Pettit and quarterback Allen Katzenmeyer, two of the district's point leaders. Each has accumulated 37 for the year.

East Liverpool's young Potters (2-4) will be out to rebound from a loss to Akron Central in going against Bellaire St. John's at Patterson Field Friday night.

South Side (3-3) closes out a mediocre season in hosting Northwestern, and Newell (0-7) looks for its first win in entertaining Cameron, in other Friday night clashes.

Elsewhere, Midland meets invading New Brighton, Chester journeys to St. Mary's, and Boardman visits Salem.

Leetonia is 0-5 for the league, and Lisbon, 1-4. The loser will undoubtedly end up last in the league standings.

Featuring Saturday's card will be Beaver Local's comeback attempt against strong West Branch. The game appears fairly even in comparative scores against a common foe.

Beaver Local defeated United Local, 12-0, while West Branch won over the Golden Eagles, 14-8.

East Palestine, stung by a 20-0 defeat to Minerva, travels to Poland to take on the Tri - County League leaders. Poland, unbeaten in six starts, is favored in this one.

Other Saturday games find Salineville (0-5-1) at United Local (4-3) and Western Reserve at Crestview (2-5).

To Be Settled Next Year

NCAA Proposal May Mean End Of AAU Rule In U.S.

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union are involved in a life and death struggle that probably will be settled early next year.

If the NCAA wins, it probably will mean the end of the AAU as an effective administrative body over United States amateur sports.

If the AAU wins, the organization will emerge stronger than ever.

The battlefield is the control of basketball in this country.

The NCAA has proposed the formation of a United States Basketball Federation to govern the sport. There would be five parties. In addition to the NCAA, it would be composed of the AAU, the Inter-service Council (for the armed forces), the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations (for high schools) and the YMCA.

Under the proposed federation, all five organizations would have a say in the governing of the game. If it goes into effect, the AAU would be stripped of its current authority.

However, the catch is that in order to function, the federation would have to be recognized by the International Amateur Basketball Body (FIBA). Right now the AAU is the United States representative.

"We have held four meetings with the AAU in order to try to put this thing through," said NCAA Executive Secretary Walter Byers today as the group's council went into the second day of its fall meeting. "We have made no appreciable progress.

"Maybe we were naive. But we thought that the AAU would realize there how deep the unrest was and figured they would welcome more representation.

"We came to the conclusion that they didn't know of the unrest. This all comes from the coaches and we had nothing to do with it."

Byers said the NCAA and the AAU would hold one more meeting on Dec. 6 in Washington in connection with the AAU convention. Then, if things are not settled — and there appears little hope that any progress will be made — the new federation will apply to the FIBA for membership.

Michigan State Widens Lead Over Mississippi

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan State widened its lead over Mississippi among major colleges today in the weekly poll of The Associated Press' 48-man committee of football writers and sportscasters. A 17-7 victory over previously unbeaten Notre Dame gave the Spartans a 40-point edge over Mississippi, which had trailed by only two points last week.

Coach Duffy Daugherty's sturdy Michigan State team, led by fullback George Saimes, collected 29 first place votes on the strength of their second half performance against Notre Dame. In the point score it was Michigan State 444, Mississippi 404.

Despite a 41-0 romp over Tulane in a night game, powerful Mississippi lost some support and received only 11 first place ballots, compared to its 21-16 edge over the Spartans last week.

Texas held tight to third place with three firsts after mandhandling Arkansas 33-7 and Alabama moved ahead of Iowa, taking over fourth position on its 34-3 triumph over Tennessee. Iowa dropped a peg to fifth, despite its 47-15 smothering of Wisconsin.

The top ten with points on a 10-9-8-7 etc. basis, with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Michigan State (29)	444
2. Mississippi (11)	404
3. Texas (3)	372
4. Alabama (4)	331
5. Iowa (1)	327
6. Ohio State	235
6. Louisiana State	128
8. Notre Dame	118
9. Georgia Tech	108
10. Colorado	97

Pros, Amateurs Set For $19,500 Classic

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A field of 88 pros and three times that many amateurs tee off today in the $19,500 Sahara Pro-Am Golf Tournament.

Injury-plagued Doug Sanders—third top money winner on this year's circuit with $56,000 — was unsure whether he'd be able to play. He has had neck trouble.

Spahn, Donovan Win ERA Titles

NEW YORK (AP) — Warren Spahn of Milwaukee and Dick Donovan of Washington are the major leagues' earned run leaders for 1961.

The veteran left-hander also won the title in 1947 and 1953.

Donovan has plenty to crow about. Associated Press statistics compiled Monday showed he yielded 45 earned runs in 169 innings for a 2.40 mark.

He thus became the first Washington pitcher to win the crown since 1938 when Garland Braxton led the league. Donovan recently was traded to Cleveland.

Tigers Retain Comfortable Margin; Niles 2nd, Alliance 3rd In Voting

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The challengers picked up a few poll points today, but Massillon's defending champions retained a comfortable lead in the weekly Associated Press high school football ratings.

For a minute and 39 seconds last Friday, a big upset was in the making as Massillon met once-beaten Mansfield. Henry Weaver of the Tygers, Ohio's fastest runner, took the opening kickoff and wended his way 87 yards through the Tigers to give Mansfield a 6-0 lead.

That's the only time this year Massillon has been behind, and the Stark Countians didn't like it. With the game only a minute and 54 seconds old, the Massillons had a touchdown of their own and an extra point for a 7-6 edge to nullify the great run by the state dash and hurdles king. Massillon won the game 34-6 and knocked the fourth-rated Tygers right out of the poll's Top 10.

Also ousted was Dayton Dunbar, which made its first appearance in the elite group last week. Dayton was dumped 36-6 by Cincinnati Elder. Cincinnati Purcell, fifth-rated, was a 40-20 victim of Louisville Flaget, top team in Kentucky, but the loss didn't hurt Purcell's Buckeye standing.

Niles McKinley clung to second place and picked up 38 poll points on Massillon on the 10-9-8-etc. basis.

Alliance held third, but Hamilton Garfield hopped from sixth to fourth. Cincinnati Roger Bacon climbed two notches to sixth, and Sandusky stayed in the seventh spot. Bellevue retained 10 — a single poll point ahead of Toledo Macomber.

From here and there: Martins Ferry, with 24 straight wins and unbeaten in the last 30, shoots for statewide recognition Friday as it goes against 13th-ranked Steubenville, loser only to Massillon.

Steubenville whipped Canton McKinley 24-19 last week as Harry Wilson, 170-pound halfback, scored twice to run his seven-game touchdown total to 13.

Sandusky's Steward Williams gained 134 rushing and scored twice for a 96-point season total in the 18-0 win over Lorain.

Cardington's Larry Coomer has 132 points for six games. In the 76-0 rout of Scioto Valley he scored on runs of 30, 35 and 36 yards, caught a 36-yard scoring pass, ran for four extra points and tossed a 47-yard touchdown heave.

Marion Harding's Al Henson rushed for 181 yards and scored three times in the 44-13 win over Findlay.

Jackson, down in the hill country, has a 12-game winning streak going. And Hamilton Catholic has copped 26 of the last 27.

Everybody plays football at Massillon. Junior Will Paisley told one of the coaches, during a hallway conversation, he could kick a football but didn't care much about the rest of the game. He was invited to come out and show his wares. He did, and after two weeks of practicing got his chance against Mansfield. He kicked four conversions in four tries.

Negro Kills Barmaid In Tavern Robbery

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A young Negro shot and killed a barmaid in the robbery of an East Side tavern Monday night, police said.

Mrs. Bessie Lasky, 68, died of a gunshot wound in the chest shortly after arrival at Mount Carmel Hospital. When the shooting occurred, she was alone in the National Grill with her assailant, police said.

Two customers had been in the bar when the robber walked in and ordered a beer. But the two left, police said, while Mrs. Lasky was questioning her murderer about his age. The two customers returned shortly to find Mrs. Lasky in a chair, bleeding. She told them who shot her.

The gunman, about 19, escaped with an undetermined amount of cash from the register.

Jim Gentile Is AL's Soph Of The Year

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Wriet r

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Gentile of the Baltimore Orioles, who tied a one-season major league record with five grand slam home runs in 1961, was named American League Sophomore of the Year today.

The strapping first baseman was picked by 149 of the 170 members of the Baseball Writers Association taking part in the annual poll conducted by The Associated Press. Pitcher Steve Barber, a teammate of Gentile's, was a distant second with 12 votes.

Gentile, 27, a southpaw swinger, wielded a sizzling bat, both for average and distance. The Californian hit .302 and tied for seventh among the league's leading batsmen.

His 46 home runs tied him with Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew for third in the American League home run derby behind Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle. He drove in 141 runs, one less than Maris, the RBI leader.

Among Gentile's other accomplishments in his sophomore season were two grand-slam home runs in a game to tie a major league mark, two homers in a game seven times and nine RBI in a game. He scored 96 runs and his 147 hits included 25 doubles and 2 triples.

Gentile spent eight years in the Dodgers' chain before the Orioles bought him for $25,000 on a conditional basis after the 1959 season. He failed to impress the Baltimore brass in spring training camp.

Once the 1960 regular season got underway, the 6-foot-3, 200-pounder began to click with his whiplash batting stroke. He finished his rookie campaign with a .292 average, 21 homers and 98 runs batted in.

Newhouser Signed As Cleveland Scout

CLEVELAND (AP)—Hal Newhouser, who helped pitch Detroit to American League pennants in 1940 and 1945 and was on the Cleveland Indians' 1954 pennant winning team, has joined the Indians as a liaison man in the clubs' farm organization.

Newhouser will scout and act as a pitching coach for the Indian minor league teams.

The Indians learned Monday that Jim (Mudcat) Grant has been called into the Army for a one-year hitch. Grant, who led the Cleveland pitching corps with a 15-9 record last season, reports Nov. 2 to Fort Belvoir, Va.

Potter Subs Drop 1st To Beaver Squad

Beaver scored on a 35 - yard punt return in the second quarter and then added the conversion for the only touchdown of the contest.

The Potters scored a safety later in the second period when Earl Olmstead tackled a Beaver back in the end zone.

Social Security Requirement Cut Under New Laws

The 1961 amendments to the Social Security Law have reduced the requirements needed to qualify for monthly benefits, William J. McCauley, manager of the Youngstown Social Security District Office, explained today.

As a result of these changes, more people can become insured more quickly, he said. Under the new law, McCauley pointed out, a person needs only one calendar quarter of coverage for each year following 1950, up to, but not including, the year a male worker becomes 65 or a woman worker reaches 62.

As an example of this new rule, McCauley explained, a woman who becomes 62 in 1961 now needs 2½ years of work (10 quarters of coverage). A minimum of six quarters of coverage still is needed to get benefits. This is the equivalent of 1½ years of work.

A quarter of coverage is earned when a person is paid at least $50 in a calendar quarter in any employment covered by social security, the manager said, and a person who is self - employed earns four quarters of coverage for each year in which his business profit is $400 or more.

Many older people who did not work long enough under the old law may now be eligible for benefits, he added. These benefits are not automatic, however, and an application still must be filed. Anyone who was told in the past that he could not get retirement benefits because he did not work long enough should immediately get in touch with his social security office to see if he is eligible for payments under the 1961 amendments, McCauley said.

The Social Security Office servicing Mahoning and Columbiana Counties is located at 123 W. Commerce St., Youngstown. The local office is in the basement of the Post Office.

City Boy, 15, Receives 3 Months Detention

A 15-year-old city youth was sentenced to three months in detention in the County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon, and two others were fined $25 each for the theft of auto hubcaps on W. 6th St. Sunday.

The boys were apprehended by city police along with Lyle Ray Adkins, 18, of Calcutta and Eugene Bowyer, 26, of Glenmoor who were fined $25 each and given suspended jail terms yesterday by Municipal Judge Samuel Chertoff.

The 15-year-old youth is to be placed with the County Welfare Department after the detention period, Judge Tobin ruled.

The other youths, 16 and 17, were placed on probation in the custody of their parents.

Woman's Freed On $2,000 Bond In Bank Fraud

GRAFTON, W. Va. (AP) — Everything at the bank seemed so normal that "you wouldn't have known there was anything wrong."

That was the way one woman employe of the First National Bank of Grafton put it after the news that another bank employe had been charged with concealing shortages of $26,146.61 hit this railroad community.

Free on $2,000 bond after waiving preliminary hearing at Fairmont is Mrs. Annabell P. Wilson, 40-year-old teller at the bank for the last eight years. The warrant, issued at Wheeling, charges her with falsifying the bank's records.

Bank officials said depositors would stand no losses as a result of the alleged irregularities.

Mrs. Wilson has a daughter, age 21.

Mrs. Wilson's arrest stunned the 20 or so bank employes.

One bank worker, who described Mrs. Wilson as "a very likeable person said: I am shocked. That's all. You just never expect that someone working with you would be involved in something like that."

A federal grand jury was to convene at Wheeling today, but U.S. Atty. Robert E. Maxwell said it was unlikely that the case would be presented soon, because it still is being investigated.

Council Sets 2 Nights For Lisbon Treat

LISBON — In an effort to limit the problem of children's Halloweening, Council Monday set two nights — Oct 30 and 31 — for trick-or-treat forays and cautioned parents to see that the youngsters do not go out on other nights for door-to-door collecting of season goodies.

In other business, council authorized the use of State Route 30 and 164 within the village as a detour for Route 644 between Kensington and Millport.

The club has a 99-year lease on the building but would like to purchase it outright if the village will waive its option. This will be checked in the abstract files. Council discussed the same proposal in May 1959 but took no official action.

Mayor Dean Stockman reported on the leaf removal machine street workers are using since it was repaired. He also reported the police department has started a drive delinquent parking tickets.

Council discussed establishing a four-way stop at Chestnut and Jefferson Sts. due to the slippery conditions of hill on Jefferson. The street committee will investigate and report at the next meeting.

Council also discussed complaints on septic tanks within the village limits and whether property owners could connect with sewer lines where available.

Councilman Fred Steele was instructed to check with owners who are having trouble and to see if sewer lines are available.

Paul Kuhns, president of the Board of Public Affairs, advised the mayor yesterday the board has not obtained the full amount of the share of the cost of installing 500 feet of storm sewer from Spruce St. to Pendleton St. west of N. Beaver St.

The board proposed that Council split the costs of the sewer pipe. He said he hopes to have the full amount by the next meeting Nov. 13.

Courtney Pennell, manager of the Lisbon office of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., will screen a film for the meeting.

Bills in the amount of $4,436 were read and ordered paid.

Apple Throwers Due Hearings Thursday

LISBON — Leroy Hawkins of Kensington and Fred A. Glasser of Hanoverton R. D. 1, both 18, will receive hearings Thursday evening before Mayor Harry Loudon of Hanoverton for speeding and throwing apples out of a moving car.

Constables Roy Painter and Leroy Ridgway were patroling north of Route 9 when their cruiser was struck with apples. They turned around and pursued the car, finally overtaking it on Route 644 southwest of Hanoverton.

Three Hanoverton juveniles, 14, 15 and 17 in the car, will be given hearings before Juvenile Officer Cornelious Csepke.

Their parents said they believed the group had gone to a movie, Painter said.

West End Fire Set By Overheated Stove

Firemen said the overheated stove set fire to a wall in the frame home of Anna Fenton, 942 Fairview St. The fire extended to the ceiling before the department arrived, firemen said.

The alarm was received at 9:10 p. m. with two trucks responding.
